Fighting For Friend's Freedom

Alexander Balter holds a poster of his close friend, Prisoner of Conscience Zachar Zunshein, in the Tel Aviv offices of the Israel Public Council for Soviet Jewry. In March 1984, Balter and Zunshein, both of Riga, demonstrated in central Moscow for exit visas. Balter was eventually released, but Zunshein was sentenced to three brutal years in the Gulag. The Student Struggle for Soviet Jewry urges letters of support to Zunshein at: Uchr. UK 272/40, Posiolok Bazoi, Ekhrir-Bulagatsky Rayon, Irkutskaya Oblast 666111, RSFSR, USSR. (Information furnished by Student Struggle For Soviet Jewry, 210 West 91st Street, New York, N.Y. 10024 (212) 799-8900.)

JDC Secures Chazan For Poland Over High Holy Days

NEW YORK — The American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee (JDC), with the help of its overseas branches and the kind cooperation of the Polish government, has been successful in securing a Chazan, Binyamin Glickman, to officiate in Poland during Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur. Inspired by a sense of mission, Glickman, who is 52, has responded to the call to leave wife and family with whom he usually spends the High Holy Days in order to lead services in the major

Israel Ministry Of Tourism Wins "Clio" Advertising Award

The Israel Ministry of Tourism has been awarded the prestigious "Clio" advertising award for the best print ad in 1986 in the travel and transportation category. The advertisement, entitled, "Guess Where," was created by Biederman & Co. and depicts an aerial view of a dramatic scene in the Galilee. The advertisement was designed with the intent of portraying Israel as an ideal vacation destination and ran in the Chicago, Miami, New York, Los Angeles and Houston markets as well as in the major Christian publications.
