

Meese: PLO Office In Washington Might Be Closed Down

NEW YORK — Addressing the Conference of Presidents of Major American Jewish Organizations, Attorney General Edwin Meese III (left) said that the Justice Department was "looking very carefully" into the activities of the PLO office in Washington and hinted that the office might be closed down. Mr. Meese also announced that an early decision was expected on whether to bar President Kurt Waldheim of Austria from the U.S. as a former Nazi. Seated are Morris B. Abram (center), chairman of the Presidents Conference, and Edgar M. Bronfman, chairman of the World Jewish Congress.

Elie Wiesel On Mission To Moscow

LONDON (WNS) — Nobel Peace Prize winner Elie Wiesel left London for Moscow on a mission to discuss the plight of Soviet Jews with the top Soviet leadership.

According to BBC, the 58-year-old author and academician who is a survivor of the Auschwitz and Buchenwald death camps, said on his departure that he hoped for a meeting with Soviet leader Mikhail Gorbachev, though nothing has been arranged yet. He also said he would attend services at the Moscow Synagogue.

Wiesel's first book devoted to Soviet Jewry, "The Jews of Silence," was published 20 years ago. He is chairman of the U.S. Holocaust Memorial Council.
