

Next Year In Jerusalem

Congregation Ner Tamid Sisterhood News

On Sunday, November 2, 1986, there will be a new Sisterhood Members brunch. All new members are welcome to come and enjoy brunch on us. The other Sisterhood members are asked to join the new members for brunch at Phyllis Lewis's home. Donation is $3.50 for Sisterhood members. All questions and reservations will be answered at our Temple Office. Please call 733-6292.

On Sunday, October 19, 1986 there was a

VIENNA (WNS) — Nazi-hunter Simon Wiesenthal was inducted into the French Legion of Honor here, the highest award France confers for civil or military merit. The presentation was made by the French Ambassador to Austria, at a ceremony attended by the Israeli Ambassador Michael Elizur, Deputy Mayor of Vienna Erhard Busek and Ivan Hacker, president of the Jewish community.

progressive dinner held. The Sisterhood members who donated their homes were Phyllis Lewis, Rachel Cherry, Joan Dunn and Dyane Grady. Because of the generosity of these women Sisterhood was able to raise a substantial amount of money. Thank you very much. Since that night many people have already asked when the next progressive dinner will be held. Good news for all of us. The announcement just came in and the progressive dinner will now become an annual event. So go on your diet now so you will be ready for next year's progressive dinner.

On October 25, 1986 Sophie Pisetsky was honored at the El Rancho Hotel as one of the recipients of the Humanitarian Award. Mazel tov, Sophie. You deserve it.

On Thursday, November 6, 1986, at 10:00 a.m. there will be our monthly board meeting. We have so many items on the agenda that it is necessary we all attend and be there on time. Thanks.

Stay tuned for the information regarding our annual Channukah Bazaar. The plans are getting under way. Games for the children. And crafts and gift items and good old fashioned Jewish cooking. We will keep you up to date and let you know the latest as soon as we do.
