

NDA Appoints President

Chairman of the Board of Nevada Development Authority, Conrad Ryan, announced the Executive Committee has appointed Al Dague as President of that organization. Dague, who was promoted from his position as Vice President, has been with NDA for six years. He replaces Bob Culp, who resigned for personal reasons earlier this month. Ryan also announced that Karen Marshall, formerly the Director of Administration, has been promoted to Vice President of Administration of NDA.

Southern Gentleman Meets Southern Belle At The Imperial Palace

The "King of Rock 'n Roll" and most assuredly, a Southern Gentleman, Elvis Presley, re-created by Jonathon Von Brana in the Imperial Palace's hit show, "Legends in Concert," recent-

One People, One Destiny

Residents of Detroit and Ramla (mishpacha echad-one family), twinned in the UJA Project Renewal program, were among 4,000 American and Israeli Jews marching together in a show of friendship during Celebration '87, the Opening in Jerusalem of the UJA/Federation Campaign. ly met the most famous Southern Belle of them all -- Scarlett O'Hara portrayed by Caia Coley, who also just finished year's reign as Miss Atlanta.

Thirty-six aspiring Scarlett's applied to play the legendary vixen during the Tight Squeeze Arts Festival in Atlanta and Ms. Coley won the honor of being the best look-a-like to Vivien Leigh in the classic film, "Gone With the Wind."

After watching an entire production of recreations of legendary superstars like Elvis, Marilyn Monroe, Buddy Holly, The Beatles, Mario Lanza and Hank Williams, all live on stage along with the comedy of Dave Swan, Scarlett O'Hara look-a-like, Caia Coley was presented with a "Legends in Concert" jacket and made an honorary "Legend."

While backstage, Caia quipped to Dave Swan, "I thought I'd meet the re-creation of Clark Gable instead of the 'clown prince of Wales.' You probably don't even know any of the plot (of 'Gone With the Wind')."

In his usual whimsical manner, Swan retorted, "No, I don't ma'am, but 'frankly, I don't give a damn!'"

"Legends in Concert" is presented twice nightly in the Imperial Theatre of the Imperial Palace Hotel & Casino at 8 p.m. & 11 p.m. (except Sundays). Cocktail shows are $11.95 plus tax.

UNLV's College of Hotel Administration and the Division of Continuing Education are sponsoring a seminar titled Hotels in Bankruptcy and Workouts on Dec. 4-5 at the Tropicana Hotel in Las Vegas.

Presenters at the seminar include top executives, lenders, counselors, attorneys, managers, and operators in the fields of hostelry, real estate, and finance.

PEOPLE ISSUES— NOT PARTY ISSUES

We DO NOT need more taxes!
We DO NEED better management!

1. 30 million plus lost on waste treatment plant.
2. 5 million on traffic signals that don't work
3. Traffic jams and financial loss due to torn up roads
4. 50 million on flood projects in the past three years—with minimal results
5. Over-runs on airport project with current and pending lawsuits against the County
