There will be a gala evening at Congregation Ner Tamid on Friday evening, November 28, 1986. Leslie and Steven Dunn, sons of Rose Dunn, will host the Oneg Shabbat after services to celebrate Rose's birthday. The Dunn family cordially invites the community to the simcha.

During the Oneg Shabbat we will be treated to a musicale featuring that well-known cellist, Hyman Gold and his trio, known professionally as the Beverly Hills Trio.

The Dunn family has been active in Congregation Ner Tamid since its inception and have shown their dedication throughout the years.

We Can, Inc. (Working to Eliminate Child Abuse and Neglect) announces that Christina Crawford, daughter of Actress Joan Crawford and author of the bestselling book, Mommie Dearest, will be the featured speaker at the Second Annual "For The Love Of A Child." This special event is to be held on Thursday evening, November 20, 1986 in the Triple Crown Ballroom of the Union Plaza.

"This year's program promises to rival the outstanding one of last year which featured missing children advocate, John Walsh," said Former Governor Grant Sawyer, who is serving as chairman of this year's event. Dr. and Mrs. Robert Maxson will serve as honorary chairpersons.

In addition to Ms. Crawford, the evening will include a gourmet dinner, musical entertainment and the presentation of the annual Chris Schaller Award.

For ticket information and reservations please contact We Can at 384-0713 between 9:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m., Monday thru Friday. Donations are tax deductible.
