UNLV freshman Noelle McKeighan has been awarded the $1,000 Women in Communications scholarship for 1986-87.

McKeighan, 19, a communication studies major, is preparing for a career in public relations.

A graduate of Harlan Community High School in Harlan, Iowa, McKeighan was active on her high school newspaper and in student theatre productions. In 1985 and 1986 she was listed in the "Who's Who Among American High School Students."

Women in Communications raises money throughout the year to support the scholarship. This is the second year the scholarship has been awarded.

Sunset High School announces its Student Council Officers for the 1986-87 school year. President Suzanne Aye, Vice President for Activities Lori Baier, Vice President for Meetings Raquel Roberts, Vice President for Public Relations Ron Stabler, Vice President for Fund Raising Cathleen Cassidy.

Sunset High School students who completed their graduation requirements during the first quarter of this school year were guests of the Sunset High School Administration at a luncheon honoring them for their achievement. They are Tanya Faye Feaster, Teresa Ann Green, Joseph Allen Martinez, LeRoy Martin Reckling, Margaret Ann Souden, Daniel Lee Spears and Angler Thomas. These students will receive their diploma at the graduation ceremony in June. In the meantime they no longer need to attend classes and are beginning their future by working or furthering their education at post-secondary school institutions.

Clark County cases of acquired immune deficiency syndrome (AIDS) increased by 3 in October bringing the total number of cases to 44 since the disease was first identified in 1981. To date, 27 patients have died here, an increase of 2 over a month ago.

Persons who want more information about AIDS may call the AIDS information number, 383-1393, Monday through Friday, 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., at the Clark County Health District. Conversations are confidential. A national AIDS information number, 1-800-342-AIDS, is available 24 hours a day.

Some 200 students and several current members of the school board will participate in a mock school board meeting at the Tom Williams Elementary School multipurpose room, 3000 E. Tonopah, North Las Vegas, at 1:30 p.m. on December 12.

Students will act as concerned members of the public. They will submit cards a day in advance to reserve time at the meeting to speak on a subject of interest and concern. The board's standard operating procedures will be followed. However, there will be no action taken, since the meeting does not meet the legal requirements of a regular school board meeting.

Students are anxiously awaiting the meeting -- eager to learn all they can about the school board and how it functions.
