JNF To Celebrate Its 85th Year Of Service To The Land Of Israel, December 29

Jewish National Fund tractor and bulldozer team blazes a road through Israel's Galilee, rich in Jewish history. Such activities are crucial to developing industry, agriculture and population centers in the rocky, hilly northern region. JNF is celebrating its 85th year of service as Israel's afforestation and land-reclamation agency.

The Jewish National Fund will celebrate its 85th anniversary in a special reception at 5:00 P.M., December 29, 1986, at the JNF House in

New York City.

JNF is the agency responsible for afforestation and land reclamation in Israel. Founded in 1901 at the Fifth Zionist Congress at Basel, the organization was established to buy land for the Jewish people's return to their ancient homeland. The United Nations 1947 Partition Plan would later draw Israel's borders along the lines of JNF's land holdings.

After the founding of the State of Israel in 1948, JNF work shifted from land purchase to reclamation, development and afforestation, reviving a land that was allowed to deteriorate for centuries. In the years that have followed, JNF has planted over 170 million trees; reclaimed close to 300,000 acres of difficult terrain for farming, housing and industry; prepared land for over 800 rural villages; built over 3,000 miles of roads, and created 110 major parks and picnic areas throughout Israel. In its land-development work, JNF has created the conditions which motivate Israel's brave pioneers to endure the challenges of life in the arid Negev desert and the rocky, hilly northern Galilee region.

JNF has recently expanded its operations to include a missions program that allows citizens from around the world to travel to Israel and witness the agency's vital projects as well as the Jewish homeland's many cultural treasures. During JNF's upcoming Third National Assembly from February 8 to 18, 1987, participants will visit JNF projects in the Galilee, Jerusalem and the Negev, as well as attend receptions featuring top Israeli and American officials. The gathering will be held in celebration of the centennial of David Ben-Gurion, founding father and first Prime Minister of Israel, who said, "The Jewish National Fund will become a vital link in a strong chain connecting every Jew around the world with the Hebrew nation."
