Our own Rita and Don Tell are on cloud nine. They celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary with a whirlwind tour of Washington, D.C. and New York City.

First they flew to the nation's capital with daughter Michele to join oldest daughter, Bonnie, who is Front Desk Manager at Marriott's Tysons Corner, Va. hotel. After all the usual cultural stops in D.C., the Tells spent a delightful Thanksgiving with the Jerry Friedmans (Rita's brother) in Laurel, Md.

Then the Tells Amtracked to NYC to cheer on the Runnin' Rebels as they won the N.I.T. Basketball Tournament at Madison Square Garden. When Rita and Don broke away from the Stage Deli, they even found time to visit with cousins and old friends. Mazel tov and 50 more.

Congratulations and Mazel tov to Shirley & Label Kravitz on their 42nd wedding anniversary. Many more with good health.

Congratulations and Mazel tov to James Ohrenshall, son of Eugenia Ross on the occasion of his Bar Mitzvah, recently at Temple Beth Sholom.

Happy 80th birthday to Bill Leff. Many more with good health.

Congratulations and Mazel tov to Min and Harry Jaroslow on their 46th wedding anniversary. Many more with good health.

Mazel tov and congratulations to Sarah and Joseph Schwartz on their 50th wedding anniversary.

Congratulations and Mazel tov to Sidney and Elaine Lewis on the recent birth of their grandson.

Sincere condolences to Dr. Harry McKinnon on the loss of his son, Richard.

Sincere condolences to the family and friends of Fred Lawson. Fred was the new owner of Santa Anita Race and Sports Book. He died of a heart attack at 42. His widow, Pamela, is listed as co-owner and assured patrons "business will continue as normal and in accordance with regulations of the Nevada Gaming and Control Board."

Marla Gerecht, daughter of Harold and Susan Gerecht of Las Vegas, will be graduating from the University of Alabama, Tuscaloosa this December, with a B.A. in Communication.

Her major is public relations with a minor in marketing.

She was recently the recipient of the Homer J. Harper Scholarship, given to an outstanding senior in public relations. She is a three-year member of the UA Speech and Debate Team and a member of Kappa Tau Alpha, a journalism honorary.

This past summer, Ms. Gerecht completed a public relations internship with R&R Advertising, Inc. of Las Vegas. Upon graduation, Ms. Gerecht will seek a public relations position locally.

Mazel tov!

David Harrison Glovinsky, son of Marv and Marylin Glovinsky, will be called to the Torah as a Bar Mitzvah, on December 26, 1986 at Congregation Ner Tamid. His prime interests are centered about the U.S. space program. He collects any pertinent information relevant, including pictures, posters and other memorabilia. The family is expecting many out of town visitors for the simcha.

We are happy to report that P.P. Mike Gordon of Temple Beth Sholom has practically recovered from a very serious surgery and on the way to complete recovery. Incidentally Mike and his lovely wife, Sallie, celebrated their "56th" wedding anniversary recently. Many more happy, healthy years to them.

Our sincere congratulations to great grandparents Mike and Sallie Gordon, to grandmother Aleen Hepler of Las Vegas and Roberta Gordon Kane of Honolulu, Hawaii, on the birth of a baby girl, Jennifer Rae to their grandchildren and son and daughter Pamela and Skip Rapoport. The baby was named at a ceremony at Temple Beth Sholom by Rabbi Louis Lederman and Cantor Simon Bergman. Congratulations to all.

Sisterhood Congregation Ner Tamid will hold a very special luncheon at the Frontier Hotel on January 21, 1987, hosted by Dyanne and Sean Grady. Chairing the event will be Juanita Wasserman. This is the second year for this lavish luncheon. We are sure that as last year it will be a total success. Those who missed out last year won't want to miss this year's. There is limited seating. For reservations, please call the Temple at 733-6292.

There will be a "Donohue Type" forum at our Temple. There will be many discussions of various topics such as eating disorders, dealing with elderly parents and adolescent children. This forum is tentatively scheduled for February 23. Look for future up-dates on all our Sisterhood functions.

Jane Rifkin is still requesting as many recipes for the Sisterhood Cookbook. She is organizing the book and she needs your help to complete this money making project.

For any Sisterhood information, call Maxine Gratz at 438-7512.

As part of the holiday program at the Boulevard Mall, the Hebrew Academy will be performing in the mall on Tuesday, December 23, at 1:00.
