

Three Exciting New Year's Eve Shows At Imperial Palace Hotel & Casino

Legends in Concert

Excitement and merriment will be prevalent at the Imperial Palace Hotel & Casino on New Year's Eve, 1986-87 when three fabulous shows will be presented in the Imperial Theatre.

The first show of the evening will be the award-winning hit show, "Legends in Concert" beginning at 7:30 p.m. "Legends in Concert" features live re-creations of legendary superstars such as Buddy Holly, Elvis Presley, Marilyn Monroe, The Beatles, Mario Lanza and Hank Williams. Included in this dynamic production are special effects and laser lights. Two cocktails are included for $11.95 plus tax.

A special New Year's Eve show of "Legends in Concert" will be presented at 10:30 p.m. This second show will include two cocktails or champagne in addition to party favors. Cost for this show is set at $29.95 plus tax.

The third show of the evening is a special late show of "The Fifth Dimension" which begins at 2:00 a.m. It has been more than a dozen years since "The Fifth Dimension" zoomed into the musical stratosphere to the tune of "Up, Up and Away." They have won several Grammy Awards and have received 14 Gold Records for such chart toppers as "One Less Bell to Answer," "Wedding Bell Blues," "Stoned Soul Picnic," "The Worst That Could Happen," "MacArthur Park," and "Aquarius/Let the Sunshine In." Two cocktails are included in the price of $15.00 plus tax.

It is suggested that you make reservations early by calling the Imperial Palace Show Reservations Desk at 794-3261.

NEW YORK (WNS) — The WJCongress has released a document here which the WJC said shows Kurt Waldheim cooperated with the Soviets during their 1968 invasion of Czechoslovakia by attempting to block Austria's granting of asylum to fleeing Czechs.

The WJC release followed an expose in The Washington Post which reported that top former Yugoslav intelligence officials said the Yugoslav intelligence cooperated with Soviet intelligence to attempt to blackmail Waldheim with a Yugoslav indictment charging Waldheim with war crimes. The WJC said it had uncovered a secret cable that Waldheim sent in 1968, when he served as Austrian Foreign Minister, to the Austrian Embassy in Prague ordering the Embassy to close its doors to Czechs seeking asylum and to throw out any Czechs in the building.

In Vienna, meanwhile, W Waldheim's spokesman admitted that Waldheim had lied about his whereabouts during a massacre of resistance fighters in the Koraza mountains of Yugoslavia carried out by the Army unit in which Waldheim served as a senior intelligence officer.

Waldheim previously denied any role in the Koraza massacres in the spring and summer of 1941 and said he was some 100 miles away from the site of the massacres during that time. But now Waldheim's spokesman said that the former United Nations Secretary General who is now President of Austria did take part in the brutal campaign. However, the spokesman said, Waldheim was a "supply officer" and not involved in combat.

The WJC said Waldheim also lied about his role in Koraza to the United States Justice Department which is conducting an ongoing investigation into Waldheim's wartime activities to determine if he should be placed on a watch list of Nazi war criminals who are barred from entering the United States.

In a related development, Canadian Exterior Affairs Minister, Joe Clark told the
