The Family Support Division of the Clark County District Attorney's Office has just completed the relocation of its offices into the Clark County Courthouse Building at 200 South Third Street, Room 545.

The Family Support Division is responsible for providing child support enforcement and paternity establishment services to the citizens of Clark County. These services are free of charge to all families participating in the Aid to Families with Dependent Children program. A nominal fee of $2.00 is required for all other individuals requesting assistance.

"It's important that the people of Clark County know that these services exist," stated District Attorney Bob Miller, "and where they can go to find them."

Anyone who would like assistance or more information from the Family Support Division can call 455-4755. Office hours are Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.
