"Soviet Jewish Prisoner Of Conscience" Poster Available

NEW YORK, N.Y. — The Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith, in cooperation with the National Conference on Soviet Jewry, has made available for schools and community organizations a new poster entitled, "Soviet Jewish Prisoners of Conscience."

The 18" x 24" poster depicts a large hammer and sickle, the symbol of Communism, encased in barbed wire and superimposed on a bold red background. Inside the hammer and sickle are the names, year of birth and photographs -- where available -- of 14 Soviet Jewish Prisoners of Conscience.

The text on the bottom of the poster declares: "These Jews will spend 1987 in Soviet prisons. Their 'crime' being the desire to know their heritage -- their culture -- their religion. The desire to live in their homeland -- in Israel!"

The poster is available without charge through ADL's 31 regional offices and through the National Conference on Soviet Jewry, 10 East 40th Street, Suite 907, New York, N.Y. 10016.
