Encore participants will receive free materials, including copies of UNLV's undergraduate and graduate catalogs. Also, Encore participants will be admitted to a special registration period Jan. 20. Regular registration is set for Jan. 21 and 22.

Ackerman suggested that those interested in attending the program should call the UNLV Admission Office before Jan. 15 to begin the enrollment process.

To reserve your space for the Encore Program or for more information, call the UNLV Admissions Office at 739-3443.

The Boulevard Mall, acting in conjunction with Kimberly Home Health Care, KXTZ Radio, and the American Heart Association, will introduce The Boulevard Mall-Walker Club. The kick-off session will begin at 8:30 A.M. on Monday, January 12th, with refreshments and local celebrities. KXTZ Air Personalities Don Johnson and Don Jones will host a brief presentation featuring former NFL quarterback David Humm of the L.A. Raiders; world class marathon runner and 1988 Olympics hopeful Frank Plasso; and Max Daffner, a heart bypass patient who went on to run a 10K marathon following his recovery.

The Boulevard Mall-Walker Club will be open to any residents who may benefit from walking for exercise in the climate-controlled environment. Walking hours will be 8:30 - 10:00 A.M. Monday-Friday, during which time a Registered Nurse will be on duty to monitor blood pressure readings, courtesy of Kimberly Home Health Care.

Members of The Boulevard Mall-Walking Club will pay a one-time membership fee of $5.00, which entitled them to a membership card, Club T-shirt, KXTZ T-shirt, KXTZ shoelaces, bi-monthly blood pressure check-ups, informative health pamphlets, and a monthly newsletter from Kimberly Home Health Care. Pre-registration forms may be obtained at Kimberly Home Health Care, KXTZ Radio, the American Heart Association, and The Boulevard Mall Management Office.

For further information or health-related questions, call Kimberly Home Health Care at 737-5300.

Two major personal computer groups, the Las Vegas PC Users and the PC Junior Users are contemplating combining in January to become what will probably be the largest computer organization in Southern Nevada, according to Al Sexner, president of the Las Vegas PC Users Group.

The site selected for meetings of the new group is the School Board Building auditorium at 2832 E. Flamingo. Meetings are normally held at 6:30 p.m., on the fourth Tuesday of each month. The first joint meeting will be on January 27, 1987.

The PC Users Group is open to all women and men who use personal computers either in their homes or businesses. A majority of the members operate IBM or IBM compatible equipment.

Persons interested in the group are invited to call Al Sexner at 876-2821.

The Red Rock Docent Program at the Spring Mountain Ranch State Park is accepting volunteers. The program began in the summer of 1977 to increase the use and enhance the enjoyment of the park.

Volunteers to the Docent Program are given a nine-session training program under the combined supervision of the State Park staff and special guest lecturers. The next training program begins February 5, 1987, and will include information on history, geology, animals, and plants of the desert, also part procedures. An apprenticeship follows with practical experience as a Docent. Fully trained Docents act as hosts in the visitor center, lead guided tours to the historic area of the ranch, and work with the park staff on various projects.

Anyone over eighteen interested in becoming a Docent should call the Division of State Parks, Spring Mountain Ranch at 875-4141.
