The Las Vegas Chapter of Hadassah has chosen a unique way to honor Soviet Jewry. We are ever mindful of the children in Russia who do not have the opportunity to observe or practice or learn the Jewish religion. Consequently we choose to honor the children of Humana Hospital, while we remember the others. It is in essence a Chanukah celebration, but we choose to call it "Children of the World."

The children came in wheelchairs, they came on crutches and were wheeled in their beds and for a time all their pain and fears were forgotten. The party was in the Pediatric Ward of Humana Hospital recently. There were stuffed toys for all and festive refreshments. There were games and music and entertainment. The star of the day was a honest to goodness clown, courtesy of Zelzah Shrine Temple, whose name is Ross McDonald. Another star for Hadassah was Terry Reed, City

On January 30, 1987 at 7:30 P.M. Music World, 2295 East Sahara Avenue, Las Vegas, will present a program of authentic flamenco dancers and classical guitarists. Special guest artist, Margo Torea, noted flamenco dancer, choreographer and teacher, will present the story of the Castanets. Admission is free, but since seating is limited, reservations are suggested. Reservations can be made by phoning 457-6869. Refreshments also will be served.

A "Heart Alert" Seminar is scheduled for Saturday, January 10, 1987 at Humana Hospital Sunrise to help area adults recognize and minimize the risks associated with heart attack and heart disease.

The seminar, co-sponsored by the Humana Hospital-Sunrise Department of Cardiovascular Rehabilitation and the American Heart Association, will discuss such topics as signs and symptoms; hypertension and blood pressure; smoking; exercise, and the importance of proper diets and good eating habits.

The event will be held in the Auditorium at Humana Hospital Sunrise and registration will be limited to the first 200 adults. Registration will open at 10:00 a.m. with the seminar beginning at 10:30 a.m. and ending at 3:00 p.m. Lunch will be provided.

For more "Heart Alert" information and reservations, please call Department of Cardiovascular Rehabilitation at 731-8031 Monday through Friday between 8:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m.

Following Election Day 1986, most campaign workers went home for a well-earned rest. But at Governor Richard Bryan's headquarters a group of volunteers worked on -- and their job won't be finished until after January 16.

Headed by Lou Gamage, Governor Bryan's Champagne Inaugural Ball Committee has been on the job daily planning invitations, decorations and how to accommodate the huge number of supporters at the ceremonial dance.

It will take the Las Vegas Hilton Center to throw what may be the biggest party in Nevada's history. The ball honoring Governor Bryan and his wife, Bonnie, will be held from 9:00 p.m. to 1:00 a.m. on January 16. An Inaugural Reception precedes the ball from 7:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m.

Costs have been kept down to allow Nevadans from all walks of life to attend the festivities. No state funds will be spent. Private donations and ticket sales -- $15 a person for the ball and $50 each for the reception and the dance -- will pay for the evening.

The Inaugural Reception will feature a light buffet and hosted bar. There will be live entertainment featuring the Davenport Family and Carleen Terrano. The decorations will feature a Nevada theme.

At 9:00 p.m. the ball will begin and those attending will receive complimentary champagne, punch, canapes and see one of the best shows on the Las Vegas Strip.

Dr. Robert Maxson, as Master of Ceremonies, will introduce the highlight of the evening -- the Grand March featuring the Governor and his wife as well as other elected state officials. An Inaugural Ball will also be held in Reno on January 23.

A photo booth will be set up in the ballroom for those who want memento photographs of the evening. Doors will not open until 9:00 p.m. to the ball and parking will be available at the Las Vegas Convention Center. Tickets will not be sold at the door.

For more information about the Champagne Inaugural Ball, please call 733-1986.
