February is National Children's Dental Health Month. The Southern Nevada Dental Hygienists' Association will be sponsoring our annual Children's Dental Health Fair which will be held February 7, 1987 at the Sear's Court in the Meadows Mall from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. The purpose of this event and other activities throughout the month of February is to focus greater public attention on the importance of preventive dental health care as well as the role of the dental hygienist in providing that care.

Famed radio/TV personality Sig Sakowicz returns to visit Las Vegas Feb. 6, 7, 8 & 9 with a tour group of 50 plus people. He and Gina will be headquartered at the Maxim Hotel.

Currently, Sig is heard daily on Chicago radio, plus thrice weekly on Satellite Music Network plus viewed twice weekly on Group W. Cable with "Sig's Celebrity Chefs."

Another Vegas tour is planned for either April or May. Arrangements are being made with the Frontier, Maxim and other hotels.

Incidentally, ever since Sig left Vegas (after 13 years) Sept. 26, 1985 he's been getting telephone Vegas reports on his radio show each week from Jim Seagrave (Frontier), Pat Wood (Maxim) Debbie Muench (Caesars Palace) and Bob Vannucci and Frenchy La Force (Reno/Ramada).

A pre-concert lecture will be presented at 7:15 p.m. before the February 2nd Subscription Concert, in the lobby of Artemus Ham Concert Hall. The lecture, an on-going series sponsored by the Symphony Guild, will present special information about the repertoire and composers related to the performance of the evening.

The lectures are free to ticket holders of the performance. For information, call 739-3420.

THE LAS VEGAS SYMPHONY will present tenor PAUL SPERRY in recital on February 4, 7:00 p.m. at Artemus Ham Concert Hall. The recital is part of the Las Vegas Chamber Music Series. Pianist Irma Vallecillo will assist Mr. Sperry in a program which includes songs by Franz

Schubert, and Albert Roussel, and a section by American composers.

Tickets are $6.00 and can be purchased at the door, the evening of the concert. For more information, call the Symphony office at 739-3420.

The fourth Subscription Concert of the Las Vegas Symphony Season will feature guest artist Paul Sperry performing a Pulitzer Prize-winning work by Bernard Rands, Canti de Sole, a concerto for voice and orchestra. The work was premiered in the New York Philharmonic's 1983 New Horizons Festival. Maestro Virko Baley will conduct the concert also presenting Mendelssohn's Midsummer Night's Dream Overture and Beethoven's Symphony No. 5 in C Minor. The performance will be held at 8:00 p.m. on February 2, 1987 at Artemus Ham Concert Hall on the UNLV campus. For ticket information call 739-3420. Tickets are $15, $13, $10.50 and $7.50.

In celebration of National Vocational Education Week, February 8-14, the staff of the Area Technical Trade Center would like to cordially invite all interested people to attend an Open House, Tuesday, February 10, 1987, at 7 P.M. The Trade Center is located at 444 West Brooks Avenue, approximately one mile west of the Community College off Cheyenne Road and Commerce Street. Entertainment will be provided by the Gibson and Robison Junior High Orchestras and assorted desserts will be served by the Culinary Arts students. Tours of the facility will be conducted by students enrolled in the Hotel Operations program. Come and observe the technical training program at ATTC, where high school students prepare themselves for a promising future. Building portable classrooms, working in local hospitals and extended care facilities, rebuilding diesel engines, making hotel room reservations, and preparing gourmet meals, is all part of a routine day for students at the Area Technical Trade Center.

The Phobic Society of America, Las Vegas Support Group Chapter meets Friday evenings, 7:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m., at HCA Montevista Centre's Conference Room, 5900 W. Rochelle Avenue, Las Vegas, Nevad.

Persons with anxiety, panic disorders and agoraphobia are invited to attend. One out of two persons in America suffers from phobias, making it the second largest mental health problem in America after alcoholism.
