Through a program originated by the H. J. Heinz Co. Foundation, each of the company's baby food labels that is collected and mailed to the University Medical Center Foundation is worth six cents toward the purchase of needed medical equipment.

Las Vegasans using Heinz baby food products are encouraged to save the labels and mail them to the University Medical Center Foundation, Heinz Baby Food Label Savings Program, 1800 W. Charleston Blvd., Las Vegas, Nevada 89102.

All funds received through this program will help support the pediatric medical program at University Medical Center, Southern Nevada's largest not-for-profit hospital and the state's major clinical campus.

The San Francisco Consort - a merry band of minstrels - brings its exhilarating program of music of the Middle Ages and the Renaissance to two locations in Las Vegas. The first is presented by the City of Las Vegas Cultural and Community Affairs Division at the Reed Whipple Cultural Center, 821 Las Vegas Blvd. North, Friday, February 13 at 8 p.m. The second, sponsored by the Las Vegas-Clark County Library District, will be presented at the Clark County Library, 1401 E. Flamingo Road, on Sunday, February 15 at 2 p.m.

This costumed consort of four musicians brings to life songs and dances of the distant past using their large collection of replica instruments. Raspy crumhorns, piercing shawm, brassy sackbut, mello cornetto, flutey organetto, harmonious recorders, stirring hurdy-gurdy, plaintive viols, tuned bells and rousing voices will entertain.

Generous support from the Nevada Humanities committee has allowed these programs to be offered free to the public.

For further information call 386-6211 or 733-7810.
