

3 Israelis Wounded, 5 Terrorists Killed In South

Lebanon Security Zone

TEL AVIV (JTA) — Three Israeli soldiers were wounded and five terrorists were killed in a clash near Tibnin village in the south Lebanon security zone. The terrorists were attacking a position of the Israel-backed South Lebanon Army (SLA).

One SLA soldier was killed and three were wounded and evacuated to hospitals. Two terrorists were killed in a clash with an Israel Defense Force unit in the same area Thursday afternoon.

According to a military spokesman, the incident occurred at 2 a.m. local time. "Dozens of terrorists attacked an SLA outpost on the border of the security zone," the spokesman said. "The terrorists were repulsed and in the helicopter gunships took part in the operation.

Two of the Israeli soldiers received slight wounds. The third has "moderate" wounds, course of their retreat they encountered an IDF force." Israeli according to the spokesman. He said a large quantity of sabotage equipment, rocket-propelled grenade launchers, machineguns, demolition bombs, belts and protective jackets were found near the bodies of the terrorists.

Unofficial reports said the terrorists involved include more than 30 members of Hezbollah, the Shiite extremist organization.

There were no Israeli casualties in the clash.

Young Judaeans Visit Israeli President

JERUSALEM -- Israeli President Chaim Herzog talks with American teenagers in the Young Judaea Study Course in Israel during their recent visit to the Presidential residence. The youngsters' questions ranged from Israel's relations with the U.S. to the Israeli economy and the prospects for peace in the Middle East. Young Judaea, the oldest and largest Zionist Youth movement in the U.S., is sponsored by Hadassah, the Women's Zionist Organization of America.
