POC Says He Was Surprised By His Release From A Soviet Labor Camp

JERUSALEM (JTA) — Prisoner of Conscience Roald (Alec) Zelichonok was surprised by his release from a labor camp in Kazakhstan over the weekend. "Now my problem is to leave here and make my way to Israel," he told Voice of Israel Radio by telephone from Leningrad in what he said was his first conversation in Hebrew in two years.

Zelichonok, 50, an electrical engineer, clandestine teacher of Hebrew and a refusenik since 1978, was one of 42 political prisoners unexpectedly freed from Soviet prisons and labor camps by decree of the Supreme Soviet.

Hammer Shares Details Of Goldfarb Release With 800 Guests At Bar-Ilan Dinner In L. A.

JOURNEY TO FREEDOM — Armand Hammer (right) shared details of how he was able to obtain the release of long-time Soviet refusenik Dr. Jacob Goldfarb and his wife with a group of Bar-Ilan University supporters in Los Angeles. The industrialist and philanthropist chaired the annual dinner of the West Coast Friends of Bar-Ilan, at which Chancellor Emanuel Rackman (left) was cited for his decade of service to the University. Hammer told the 800 guests, "One success cannot make us complacent. Our work is not over until everyone in the world can live in dignity and peace."

And for people who would like to see Israel through the eyes of a native, El Al's English-speaking guides will escort them on a choice of three eye-opening tours. Newcomers can explore Jerusalem, Tel Aviv, Massada and a kibbutz for 12 days and 10 nights from as low as $439 plus airfare on the Israel Discovery Tour. For a more extensive visit, El Al offers the 15 day/13 night Israel Plus Tour from as low as $549 plus airfare. Travelers who would like more rest and relaxation can spend 12 full nights in Jerusalem, on the 22 day/20 night on the Israel at Leisure Tour.
