Police Report No Leads In Old City Bombing

JERUSALEM (JTA) — Jerusalem police admitted that they have no leads in their investigation of the grenade attack that injured 12 border policemen and five Arab civilians near the Old City walls Sunday afternoon. Five of the injured remained hospitalized. About 70 suspects detained for questioning immediately after the attack have been released.

Unknown assailants threw the grenade at about 2 p.m. local time when two border patrols were changing shifts just outside the Jaffa Gate. Seymour D. Reich, international president of B'nai B'rith, said Begun had been imprisoned unjustly. "His only objective was to instruct other Jews in the Hebrew language and endeavor to win the right to emigrate -- for himself and thousands of fellow Jews."

Reich said it is the hope of the world's largest Jewish organization that Begun and other Jews who wish to leave the Soviet Union will be permitted to emigrate.

The border police unit attacked Sunday was the same one which suffered heavy losses when an Israeli military headquarters building collapsed in the Lebanese port city of Tyre five years ago. Thirty-four people were killed in that incident, which was attributed to a gas leak.
