

Jewish Community Council Of Northern Nevada News

David Levine, founder of the Jewish Community Council of Northern Nevada, has been elected president of the regional Jewish organization.

Serving with Levine during the 1987 term are: Milton Can, vice president; Harriet Wolf, recording secretary; Jack Bulavsky, corresponding secretary; Bill Wells, treasurer; and Leonard Weinberg, past president.

Levine has lived in Reno 20 years and is one of three Jewish men in northern Nevada listed in Who's Who. He is a past president of Temple Sinai, the temple's board of directors, and the temple's mens club.

The Jewish Community Council advances Jewish thinking and views within the community and also sponsors socials, speakers, and University of Nevada Jewish activities. The group is a composite of citizens, representatives of the two Jewish temples in Reno, and various Jewish organizations.

HBO To Begin Filming Simon Wiesenthal's Life Story This Spring

LOS ANGELES -- At a recent press conference held in the Simon Wiesenthal Center's Holocaust museum, Home Box Office and Robert Cooper Productions announced their plans to do a major motion picture based on the life story of Simon Wiesenthal (far right). Slated to begin filming on location in Europe this spring, the film will be entitled, "The Simon Wiesenthal Story: Murderers Among Us." Pictured with Simon Wiesenthal are (from left to right) Robert Cooper, Rabbi Marvin Hier, Dean of the Simon Wiesenthal Center, and Michael Fuchs, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Home Box Office Inc.

Denver To Seek Bids To Move Golda's Home From City Park

DENVER, Colo. (JTA) — Golda Meir's former residence here has again received a temporary reprieve from the wrecking ball.

A hearing scheduled to explore the fate of the house was postponed, and the City and County of Denver agreed to advertise aggressively for the next 60 days for bids to move the house from the city's Sanderson Gulch Park, where it sits on steel beams, in disrepair.

City officials and members of the local Golda Meir Memorial Association have argued whether the house can be moved safely.

Ralph Engelstad Receives Hockey Stick At University Of North Dakota Alumni Reunion At Imperial Palace Hotel & Casino

Earl Strinden, executive vice president of the University of North Dakota Alumni Association & Foundation (left), presented Imperial Palace President/Owner Ralph Engelstad (center) with a hockey stick at the University's alumni reunion held recently at the Imperial Palace Hotel & Casino in Las Vegas. Accompanying Engelstad during the presentation cocktail party was his wife, Betty.

UND's hockey team is a Division I team in the Western Collegiate Hockey Association. They set many records during the 1986-87 season and took the championship as well. Engelstad is a 1953 graduate of UND and during his college days, he was the goalie for the school's hockey team. Engelstad attended the University of North Dakota on a hockey scholarship and earned a degree in Business Administration.

The hockey stick was presented as a reminder of Ralph's past accomplishments and as a thank you for hosting the gala event which included a lavish cocktail party followed the next morning by an outstanding buffet brunch.

Alumni members attending the exciting weekend activities included graduates from as long ago as 1912 and as recent as 1986.

Hamantaschen -- Five Approaches

(Continued from page 21)

1/2 C. snipped white raisins
1/3 C. chopped walnuts
2 t. lemon juice; 1 t. grated lemon rind

Mix all together.

Prune Filling

8-10 oz. pitted prunes
1/2 C. raisins
2 T. grated orange rind
1/4 C. chopped walnuts (optional)
2T. sugar, or more to taste

Cook prunes and raisins in a small amount of water until tender. Drain and chop fine. Stir in remaining ingredients. Chill.
(Naomi Arabit of Milwaukee, Wis., has written seven cookbooks and teaches cooking.)

Dream Dessert Of The Century

"LITE LITE TOFUTTI" is 98% fat-free with only 90 calories per 4-oz. serving. This "creamy" non-dairy ice cream alternative is cholesterol and lactose free. "LITE LITE TOFUTTI" hard pack will come in Chocolate Vanilla Twirl, Chocolate Strawberry Twirl, Strawberry Vanilla Twirl, Capuccino Vanilla Twirl, Applejack Vanilla Twirl and a Triple Twirl of Vanilla, Chocolate and Strawberry.

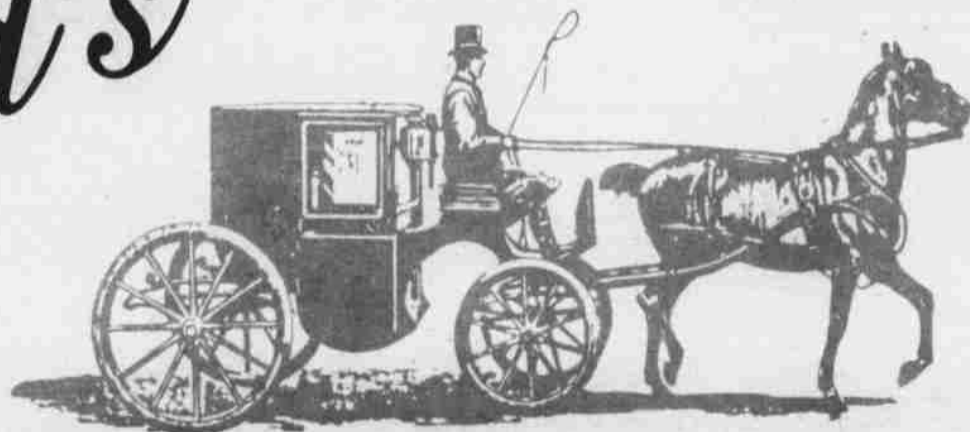

Ralph Engelstad is also a past recipient of the Sioux Award which carries the highest distinction presented by the Alumni Association. Recipients of the Sioux Award are those individuals who have brought distinction to themselves and the school through their career.

Founded in 1883, UND is located in Grand Forks, ND. The student body is now over 11,000.

RESTAURANT & BAR
Lunch and Dinner

FRENCH/CONTINENTAL CUISINE
WILD GAME

Armand's

FOR A MEMORABLE EVENING—THE FINEST IN GOURMET DINING

3240 S. EASTERN AVENUE AT DESERT INN, LAS VEGAS, NEVADA— 734-9767