TEL AVIV (JTA) — The Knesset's intelligence subcommittee investigating the government's role in the Jonathan Pollard spy case will complete taking evidence soon and then begin writing its report, Abba Eban, chairman of the Foreign Affairs and Security Committee, the subcommittee's parent body, said recently. The subcommittee has been meeting daily. At the same time, a two-man "clarification committee" appointed by the Inner Cabinet began its own probe into the Pollard affair this week.

Eban spoke to reporters after briefing a visiting delegation of the Conference of Presidents of Major American Jewish Organizations. He said he had not disclosed details but outlined the subcommittee's procedures. The American Jewish leaders appeared pleased that Israel has undertaken a serious investigation of the Pollard affair on the the Knesset and Cabinet levels, he

Oldest Living Hadassah President Honored

JERUSALEM - Jerusalem Mayor Teddy Kollek presents the Amit Yerushalayim (Guardian of Jerusalem) Award to Judith Epstein, 91, the oldest living President of Hadassah, the Women's Zionist Organization of America, at the opening ceremonies of Hadassah's Diamond Jubilee Mission to Israel. More than 2,500 Hadassah members and their families are participating in the mission which celebrates Hadassah's 75th Anniversary and the organization's unique role in the birth and development of the State of Israel. Eight other living Hadassah National Presidents also were honored at the ceremony.

Dr. Robert Maxson, president of U.N.L.V., will be the guest speaker at the Sisterhood Meeting on April 8, 11:30 meeting and luncheon in the social hall. At this meeting members will elect a new slate of officers. This is an important meeting and it is open to the public. Baby sitting is available.

Robert C. Maxson assumed his duties as president of the University of Nevada, Las Vegas,
