

Seven Las Vegas Hotels Feature Hagler-Leonard Closed-Circuit Telecasts

Seven Las Vegas hotel-casinos will provide exclusive live closed-circuit telecasts of the record-setting Marvelous Marvin Hagler-Sugar Ray Leonard middleweight title card Monday, April 6.

The Las Vegas area hotel-casinos are the Tropicana, Bally's Grand, Caesars Palace and the Las Vegas Hilton on "The Strip," the Union Plaza downtown; the Showboat on Boulder Highway; and the Gold Coast west of the freeway.

These seven closed-circuit locations are being utilized because of the tremendous interest in this 160-pound championship fight. The card, which takes place at Caesars Palace in its 15,000-seat Outdoor Stadium, has been sold out since December, the earliest sell-out date for any card ever in Las Vegas.

Ticket prices for the live closed-circuit telecast at the seven hotel-casinos start at $30, depending on the location and reserved seating. For exact prices and room, contact the specific hotel-casino.

Doors at all closed-circuit locations open at 5 p.m. with the first telecast bout beginning at 6. The Hagler-Leonard fight will be telecast at approximately 8.

State-of-the-art projection equipment will be used to assure the finest picture possible and screen sizes will be as large as 1200 square feet. The main event matches middleweight champion Hagler, undefeated in more than 10 years and with a record of 62-2-2 and 52 knockouts, against Leonard, the former world welterweight and World Boxing Association junior middleweight champion with a record of 33-1 and 24 knockouts.

Also on the card promoted by Bob Arum's Top Rank Inc. will be World Boxing Council super welterweight champion Duane Thomas against Lupe Aquino.

'Legends In Concert' From Imperial Palace Hotel And Casino To Appear On 'Eye On Hollywood'

"Eye on Hollywood" recently taped a portion of its 30-minute syndicated television show at the Imperial Palace Hotel & Casino in Las Vegas. The focus of the segment was famous sex symbols and included cast members from the award-winning show, "Legends in Concert."

Although "Legends in Concert" was taped in its entirety, the show, hosted by Jann Carl and Chuck Henry, concentrated on Pete Willcox and Susan Griffiths who portray Elvis Presley and Marilyn Monroe in the show.

In addition to on-stage shots of "Elvis" and "Marilyn," on location shots and interviews were done of both stars in their homes. Susan also did a "calendar-type, pin-up layout" in one of the luxurious Imperial Palace "luv tub" suites surrounded by mounds of bubbles.

Cast members who re-create "The Beatles," along with other cast members, were interviewed backstage for "Eye on Hollywood."

Air dates have not yet been announced, however, the show is scheduled to air four times; this May, September, December and January, 1988.

"Legends in Concert" is presented twice each evening in the elegant Imperial Theatre at 8 p.m. & 11 p.m. Cocktail shows are $11.95 plus tax with a $2.00 surcharge for Saturday performances. the book sale will be open Friday, April 3, from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., and Saturday, April 4, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. For more information regarding the book sale, call 739-3286.
