B'nai B'rith Women Hold Annual Installation And Donor Luncheon

The annual installation and donor luncheon is being held by B'nai B'rith Women, Las Vegas Silver Meadows Chapter No. 1580 on Sunday, April 5th at 11:30 A.M. at the Liberace Tivoli Gardens Crystal Ballroom. A gala afternoon has been planned with white glove service and entertainment.

The public is invited to attend. Donation is $15.00 per person. Reservations can be made by calling Claire Dase at 870-4921 or Estelle Auslander at 735-0983.

of the Joint Executive and Legislative Nominations Committee of the Connecticut General Assembly.

Highly regarded for his general and Jewish scholarship, the Conservative rabbi is a magna cum laude graduate of Harvard College, holds an M.A. from Columbia University, Bachelor of Jewish Education cum laude and Master of Hebrew Letters from Boston Hebrew College, Master of Hebrew Literature and rabbinic ordination from The Jewish Theological Seminary of America, and a Ph.D. from UCLA.

Rabbi Menitoff's unique career of public service includes work in a Harlem settlement house, volunteer Hebrew teaching of immigrants to the State of Israel, the development and implementation of an educational enrichment program for the children of the Chippewa Indian Tribe in Northern Wisconsin, and the 1985 Columbus House Emergency Night Shelter Volunteer Service Award "for enabling homeless men and women to receive shelter, food, and companionship necessary to protect their lives and preserve their dignity." He is perhaps best known in his former habitat of Southern California where he spent the first 15 years of his rabinate as host of KABC-TV's popular weekly series "Rap with Rabbi Mike."

Acclaimed New York playwright Maria Irene Fornes will conduct an intensive six-part workshop on "Creative Writing for the Theatre" in the next presentation of the Southwest Gas Distinguished Artists Series March 28-30 on the UNLV campus. The university theatre arts department already began registering workshop participants and observers March 23. To register, call the university theatre arts department at 739-3666.

For the first time in the history of the State of Connecticut, a rabbi has been appointed to serve as a member of the prestigious 7-person State Ethics Commission which administers the code of ethics for all public officials, state employees and their families, candidates for public office, and lobbyists at the state level. Rabbi Michael Menitoff, spiritual leader of 930-family-member Congregation B'nai Jacob in Woodbridge and Fellow of Ezra Stiles College of Yale University, is shown above at his swearing-in ceremony at the State House in Hartford following hearings
