

The Handsomest, Coolest, Most Exciting Men Of 1986

President Rayma Rich and members of the International Society of Boy Watchers are at it again, announcing their Top 10 Men for 1986, a select group which was determined by not-so-secret balloting among the score of members of ISBW. No more "flash in the pan," Rich's organization was founded in 1970 and, each year with the advent of spring, members celebrate with thoughts of love, romance and the objects of their affection -- handsome men:

Number 1: Tom Cruise

Grabbed ISBW's number one slot hands down with his performances in "Top Gun" and "Color of Money" which were outstanding. He's tough, cocky and loveable.

Number 2: Dennis Farina

Don Johnson can move over because there's a new guy on the block! Dennis Farina, hero of "Crime Story," strikes women as ruggedly handsome as a green-eyed cop...a man definitely worth watching.

Number 3: Bryant Gumbel

The cool, intelligent co-host of NBC's "Today Show" starts members day off with a smile.

Number 4: Judge Reinhold

His vulnerability and innocence, as portrayed in "Beverly Hills Cop" and "Ruthless People," was believable enough to win ISBW hearts.

Number 5: Paul Hogan

Australia's newest expert, the blonde star of "Crocodile Dundee," has most members booking passage on Qantas so they can check out all the "Down Under" males for themselves...in action, of course.

Number 6: Dennis Conner

This sun-tanned, brunette skipper -- and spirit behind -- the "Stars and Stripes" inspired members by bringing the America's Cup back home.

As a man of vitality and leadership, he's a real WINNER!

Number 7: Julian Lennon

Twenty-three-year-old Julian is a talented musician following in his father's footsteps. Women find him charismatic and thrilling, equally appealing on every continent.

Number 8: Anthony "Tony" Denison

Hearts throb each week as Tony plays Luca, the "heavy" on "Crime Story." A Virgo with seven planets in Leo, his 6-foot, 1-inch frame, chestnut brown hair and big, brown eyes provide all the sex appeal members look for -- in one, neat package.

Number 9: Joe Kennedy

Young...handsome...debonair...and rich, Massachusetts Democrat Joe (as he's affectionately called by Boy Watchers across the nation) is the 34-year-old son of the late Robert Kennedy and he's making all the right moves. He was just voted into the House of Representtatives, bringing the Kennedy family's good looks and tenacity back into American politics.

Number 10: Mikhail Baryshnikov

Blonde, blue-eyed Mikhail is hailed as the most sensitive, sensuous man ISBW members have ever seen come out of Russia. His expressive face and incredible grace in "White Knight" delighted audiences and made every Boy Watcher's day.

ISBW President Rayma Rich states, "There are just too many attractive men to list in the poll, but these represent the creme d' la creme." Their "best watching spots?" Hawaii, Sun Valley, Idaho, London and their all-time favorite, the beaches of Southern California.

"Boy watching is great sport," Rich notes. "It's non-fattening, fun and keeps you young. The International Society of Boy Watchers now has kits available for your everyday, garden variety of Boy Watching; as well as special kits that "hone in" on Cowboys and Beach Boys. Send orders to Boy Watchers U.S.A., P.O. Box 11349, Las Vegas, NV 89111.

U.S. View On Soviet Jewry Development

WASHINGTON (JTA) — The Reagan Administration had no comment about a reported agreement by Soviet officials to allow Jewish emigrants to fly directly to Israel through Rumania.

But Department spokesperson Phyllis Oakley made clear that the United States was against any policy forcing Soviet Jewish immigrants to go to Israel. "It is long-standing United States policy that Soviet Jews should be able to immigrate to the country of their choice," Oakley said. "That remains our position."

The Administration rejected a request from Israeli Premier Yitzhak Shamir, during his recent visit to Washington, that Soviet Jewish emigrants not be given refugee status which allows them to immigrate to the U.S.

Soviet Jews, all carrying visas to Israel, now emigrate from the USSR through Austria, where the majority decide to go to the U.S. and other countries rather than Israel.

Morris Abram, chairman of the National Conference on Soviet Jewry and of the Conference of Presidents of Major American Jewish Organizations and Edgar Bronfman, president of the World Jewish Congress, during a visit to Moscow last weekend reportedly were told that the Soviets would permit the direct flights to Israel via Rumania.

Oakley did not comment on assurances the two Jewish leaders received for increased Jewish emigration.

"We've noticed that on several occasions during the past few months, both in public and in private, Soviet officials have said that the emigration level would rise in 1987," she said.
