

ONLY in VEGAS

The 1987 United Jewish Appeal Campaign for Northern Nevada climaxes with an elegant Dinner-Dance on Saturday, May 9, at Bally's Reno. The guest speaker will be Dr. Shlomo Aronson, professor of Political Science at the Hebrew University.

Aronson's scholarly research and publications in English, German and Hebrew are divided between the study of the Holocaust; Nazism and Fascism; and the Arab-Israeli Conflict and the Israeli Society.

For more information and reservations, contact co-chairman Harriet Wolfe at (702) 826-4844.

Want the most delicious Chinese Food in Las Vegas? Try the Imperial Garden Restaurant at the corner of Sahara & Maryland Parkway. They are open from 11:30 a.m. to 11:30 p.m. Their food is Mmmmmmmmm good!

Singing, strumming, and story-telling are just parts of an evening of American folk music with Arlo Guthrie, Wednesday, April 15 at 7:30 p.m. in UNLV's Artemus Ham Hall.

Tickets are now on sale at $14.50 for this unique performance combining music and humor with keen insights and satirical observations.

Tickets are available at Thomas & Mack Center Box Office, Nellis AFB and all Ticketron Outlets.

On May 5th the Primary Municipal Elections will be held in Las Vegas, North Las Vegas, Boulder City and Henderson. For those people who will be out-of-town and require an absentee ballot, requests for absentee ballots for the cities of Boulder City, Henderson or North Las Vegas should be directed to the respective City Clerk and for the City of Las Vegas residents, absentee ballot requests should be directed to the Clark County Election Department, 400 Las Vegas Boulevard South, Las Vegas, Nevada 89101. All absentee ballot requests must be received in the respective offices no later than April 28th.

In-office absentee voting will be available April 10th through April 28th for registered voters in Las Vegas, who may cast an absentee ballot at the Clark County Election Department, 400 Las Vegas Boulevard South. Persons requiring in-office voting in the cities of Boulder City, Henderson or North Las Vegas should contact their respective City Clerk for the dates and hours of in-office voting. This means of in-office absentee voting is made available for those people who will not be in town on Election Day and will not be at any permanent address sufficiently long enough to receive an absentee ballot by mail.

After April 28th, absentee voting in-office will be restricted to persons attesting that an emergency situation exists. All absentee ballots must be returned to the issuing office by Election Day.

One of the most spectacular displays of commercial building lighting ever shown in Las Vegas will be at the Nevada Lighting Expo April 14-15 in the Convention Center at the Hacienda Hotel. The nation's leading manufacturers of energy efficient high-tech lighting will exhibit their latest products and systems at the two-day event.

The Exposition is open to all business people at no charge. Exhibit hours on Tuesday, April 14 are 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.; on Wednesday, 9 a.m. to 2 p.m.

The UNLV Chamber Chorale will conclude its spring concert season with a "Home Concert" performance on April 21 at 7:30 p.m. in the Black Box Theatre.

For more information about the "Home Concert," call UNLV's music department at 739-3332.

UNLV will sponsor a national Symposium on Special Physical Education, Recreation, and Sport April 11 and 12.

Leading national and international experts in the field of special physical education and recreation will discuss new techniques and theories at the symposium.

For more information regarding the symposium, call Dempsey at 739-3291. To register for the event, call UNLV's Division of Continuing Education at 739-3394.
