

ONLY in VEGAS

There will be a giant 2-store parking lot sale at Music World, featuring free refreshments, balloons, entertainment and all kinds of musical instruments from both Music World and The Drum Shop. The sale will begin with a preview on Friday, April 24th. Super sale days will be Saturday and Sunday, April 25th and 26th from 9:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.

Music World will feature new and used pianos, organs, and keyboards, as well as antique grand pianos, player pianos and nickelodeons. The sale will include famous brand names of Baldwin, Kimball, Kawai, Schafer & Sons, Technics, Steinway, Wurlitzer and Suzuki. Prices have been cut and $100's to $1,000's can be saved on these musical instruments as well as grandfather clocks. Upright pianos will be available from $200. Unusual musical gift items will be featured, along with discounted sheet music and books.

The Drum Shop will offer drums (of course), guitars, amps, accessories, synthesizers and used band instruments.

Come join the fun! Register for door prizes. Follow the sounds of the Wurlitzer Band Organ to the Music World parking lot. There will be easy credit terms with 90-day payment the same as cash on approved credit.

Everyone is invited to come see some unique antique cars -- a special part of this display being an antique milk truck.

If you have been thinking about a piano or musical instrument, don't miss this sale. It's a once-a-year chance to save!

National University's Department of Continuing Education is offering a seminar on self-hypnosis and meditation, giving you an opportunity to change the way in which you handle various problems, from stress management to athletic performance. This seminar will assist you in habit changes, fears and phobias, applying the technique at home, work, school, and help you script your own personal tape.

Come join us Wednesdays April 22 & 29 from 6-9 p.m. The seminar is held at 2080 E. Flamingo Rd., Suite 220. For further details, please call 399-6100. Enrollment is limited.

United Cerebral Palsy of Southern Nevada has a wonderful way for you to let your secretary know how much he/she truly means to you. As International Secretaries Week approaches (April 19-25), bosses all over the valley are preparing to recognize that segment of the work force that is the foundation of the business world, the Secretary. And to make the job easier United Cerebral Palsy has put together a unique gift package called "The Secretary Salute."

For a tax deductible donation of $15 to United Cerebral Palsy of Southern Nevada, you may purchase a Salute Gift Package that is packed full of gifts for your secretary. Complimentary facials, manicures and pedicures, buy one get one free lunch at Chez Christina's (let the boss pay for it), free portraits, scented candles, $15 gift certificates from Jafra, a box of Ethel M chocolates, 2 week memberships to the Athletic Club and liberally sprinkled in packages will be show tickets to popular Strip Shows and dinners for two at local restaurants.

The Secretary's Salute is available by calling 731-3895 and can be picked up at 3101 S. Maryland Parkway, Suite 306 on April 20, 21, 22, 23. Orders of 10 or more will be delivered.

The newly formed UNLV Community Band will give its premiere performance May 7 at 8 p.m. in UNLV's Artemus Ham Concert Hall.

For more information, call the UNLV music department at 739-3332.

Beethoven's string quartets, perhaps the most remarkable series of musical compositions ever written, will be the focus of a three-event program to be held on the UNLV campus April 26-28.

Federal Magistrate Philip M. Pro will be the guest speaker at the Las Vegas Senior Citizens Center, 450 E. Bonanza Rd., on Thursday, April 23, 1987. His presentation, "Judges Are People, Too" is part of an eight-week series of lecture/discussions entitled, "Exploring Today's Judicial System" which is being funded by the Nevada Humanities Committee and hosted by the Senior Center's Humanities Discussion Group.

"Judges Are People, Too" will look at the capabilities and controls of judges, explain how judges are appointed or elected, the role of peer review and how they can be removed from office.

The program is open to the public and a 50¢ donation is suggested. Refreshments will be served. For more information, call 386-6454.

National University's Department of Continuing Education is offering a computer simplified workshop designed to familiarize persons with the capabilities of the computer. It will assist you in understanding the technical mystery and jargon associated with the computer. The material presented in this workshop is designed for those who have had no previous background or specialized knowledge of computers.

The course is offered starting Monday night April 20 from 6-9 p.m. and concluding Monday April 27th from 6-9 p.m. The class is held at 2080 E. Flamingo Rd., Suite 220.

For further details call National University at 399-6100. Enrollment is limited.

Parents, teachers and other professionals can choose from eleven classes and workshops on parenting and child development in a new program being offered this spring by UNLV's Division of Continuing Education.

The classes, to be taught by Maria Cardle, involve a number of special issues.

For details of specific classes, call UNLV's Division of Continuing Education at 739-3394.
