Abraham Lublin, son of Aurora & Seth Lublin, was called to the Torah as a Bar Mitzvah, recently. Dr. Louis M. Lederman, Rabbi, officiated. Hazan Simon Bergman, Cantor, chanted the liturgy.

BALTIMORE (JTA) — A Jew who retired from the Baltimore Fire Department because of medical difficulties he said were related to religious harassment has been awarded $30,553 in back-pay, the Baltimore Jewish Times reports.

The back-pay covers two years, the maximum award. The city solicitor's office is expected to appeal the decision.

Las Vegas Israelite Jewish Federation To "Swing" May 20th

The team of Sandy Mallin, Micki Waller and Alan Molasky has been hard at work finalizing plans for the Third Annual Jewish Federation Golf Tournament, scheduled for Wednesday, May 20th, at the Showboat Golf Course. And, it has been announced that Bambi of UNLV Rebels Poster fame, will be on hand for the day's activities and to distribute awards at the dinner following the tournament.

Sandy, Micki and Alan have also secured exciting prizes and gifts, including a 1987 Volkswagen Cabriolet, donated by Gaudin Imports, for a Hole-in-One contest on Number 14.

There is still time to register for the tournament by submitting your handicap and a check for $150 to the Jewish Federation Office. A light lunch will be served at 12 noon, with a shot-gun start slated for 1 p.m. Dinner and presentation of awards will follow at the close of the tournament; your invited guests can be accommodated for a nominal fee.

Join us at the Showboat Golf Course for a "Swinging Good Time" of golf, fun, food and Bambi.

Temple Beth-Am Sisterhood News

Temple Beth-Am Sisterhood celebrated their first birthday at their last meeting, which was held recently at the Center of Religion and Life. A birthday cake was served and President Frances K. Copeland cut the first slice.

The Sisterhood has planned a membership luncheon on Sunday, May 17th at 12:00 noon. All new members joining Sisterhood before that date will be guests at the luncheon. Membership dues are $15.00 and pays you through June 1988. All ladies of the Jewish community are invited to join a growing and vibrant Sisterhood. Our Executive Vice President Tobe Daum is the chairman of the luncheon. To join the Sisterhood or to get details on the luncheon please call: Evelyn Pillischer at 733-5848.

Suzann Denton-Pratt is now on the Board of Directors. The Sisterhood did participate in the desert Seder at the Nevada Test Site.

The Sisterhood is going to have a booth at the Jewish Student Union for Israel Independence Day on May 3, 1987.

The next Sisterhood Board meeting is May 5, 1987 also at the Center. For information, call 878-5409 or 645-6624.

Las Vegas Celebrates Israel Independence Day

people will participate in the day's offerings.

The festival will include entertainment, Israeli food and refreshments, a walk-a-thon and booths with displays and cultural items for sale. A special exhibit in recognition of Soviet Jewry will also be featured.

Tickets are required for entry into the event's facility. Advance sale tickets are now available for Israel Independence Day. Adult tickets are $5, students and seniors are $2.50, children aged 6-12 are $1 and donors are $20. Representatives from local organizations will be selling these tickets, or they can be purchased at the gate on the day of the event. A souvenir brochure, which will list donors, will be given to ticket-holders upon entry.

There will be something for everyone at this community-wide celebration. Mark your calendar -- tell your friends! Join us. Plan on arriving early and staying late, because there will be plenty to do and lots to see. Need further information? Want to volunteer to help with this event or walk in the walk-a-thon? Want to rent a booth, purchase tickets? Contact the Suzan Lane at the Jewish Federation office, 732-0556.

TEL AVIV (JTA) — The Supreme Court has set May 24 as the date to begin hearing an appeal by former Israel Defense Force Lt. Azzat Nafsu who is serving an 18-year prison sentence imposed by a military court in 1980 for alleged treason.

The top secret agency Shin Bet was involved in a scandal last year over the murder of two captured Arab bus hijackers by security agents in 1984. Three senior Shin Bet officials were given Presidential pardons before any charges were filed against them. One of them admitted the agency routinely fabricated evidence to protect itself.
