

Andrew M. Eisen Wins Jostens Foundation Leader Scholarship Award

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. — Andrew M. Eisen of Las Vegas, NV., a senior at Chaparral High School, has been named a winner of a 1987 Jostens Foundation Leader Scholarship Award.

Andrew Eisen is one of more than 24,000 seniors throughout the United States, Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands and American schools abroad who competed for a $1,000 Jostens Foundation Leader Scholarship Award. Selection of scholarship award winners was based on outstanding achievements in school and community activities, and academic excellence. The Citizens' Scholarship Foundation of America, St. Peter, Minn., administrator of The Jostens Foundation Leader Scholarship Program, selected the 250 scholarship winners.

Commenting on the scholarship program, Don C. Lein, president of The Jostens Foundation, said, "The Jostens Foundation is committed to developing quality education for today's young people and responding to the needs of our youth."

Funds for The Jostens Foundation are provided annually by a major support program of Jostens, Inc., the world's largest manufacturer of class rings and yearbooks. Jostens also provides recognition and motivation products and services for education, business and athletics.

Two Jewish Groups Protest Bolivia's Move To Grant PLO Diplomatic Status

NEW YORK (JTA) — Two international Jewish organizations have lodged strong protests with the Bolivian government for granting diplomatic status to the Palestine Liberation Organization which has had an office in La Paz since 1982.

Israel Singer, secretary general of the World Jewish Congress, and Seymour Reich, international president of B'nai B'rith, expressed shock, concern and disappointment over the move which they saw as a dangerous precedent for other Latin American countries. According to the WJC, the Israel Embassy in La Paz and the local Jewish community have also objected vehemently.

Singer, in a telegram to the Bolivian Ambassador, Fernando Illanes de la Riva, said "Our protest in this regard arises from the nature of the PLO which has not renounced terrorism and whose violent history is all too well known." Reich said in a statement issued in Washington that "There is little question that this move will be taken by the terrorist organization and its supporters as an endorsement of their extremist and violent activities which they claim to perform in the name of justice." He said B'nai B'rith urges the Bolivian government to reconsider its move.
