

Doesn't Las Vegas deserve a full-time Mayor?

A part-time Mayor isn't good enough for Las Vegas any more.

Not the way we're growing. Not if we're going to keep the promises we've made to the future.

That's why I'm placing the bulk of my business affairs in the hands of a special management team. I built that business by giving it everything I've got. And now I'm clearing my desk so that I can give Las Vegas the same complete commitment.

As your Mayor.
Working full-time.

Bob Stupak for Mayor? You bet!
