'Legends In Concert' At The Imperial Palace Hotel & Casino Earns Award

"Legends in Concert," the long-running stage extravaganza at the Imperial Palace Hotel & Casino, captured the title of 1987 "Entertainer of the Year." The award was presented by a local magazine.

Producer/Director John Stuart accepted the award on behalf of the cast at a recent luncheon. Several cast members of "Legends in Concert" were present for the presentation. Those in attendance for the honor were: George Trullinger (Buddy Holly), Eddie Carroll (Jack Benny), Richie Sacks (Mario Lanza), Tony Roi (Elvis Presley), Bill White (Louis Armstrong) and comedian Dave Swan.

The "Entertainer of the Year" award was garnered by "Legends in Concert" because of its consistently large audiences and for the substantial contributions made to the community during the past year. The cast of "Legends" donated their time and talent for numerous charitable events and continues to do so.

Stuart believes one must give back to those who have helped in his and "Legends" success in Las Vegas.

In 1985, "Legends in Concert" was voted "Show of the Year" by the Las Vegas Chamber of Commerce for much the same reason.

"Legends in Concert," now in its 47th month at the Imperial Palace, has garnered a great deal of national publicity for Las Vegas. Its recreations of legendary superstars have been seen on "Merv Griffin," "ABC World News Tonight," "Eye on Hollywood," "Entertainment Tonight," "L.A. Law," "Lifestyles of the Rich & Famous" and other shows in the U.S. and Canada.
