Northwest Airlines To Begin Nonstop Service Linking Las Vegas With Detroit

LAS VEGAS — Northwest Airlines will begin nonstop service between Las Vegas and Detroit effective June 1.

According to Jim Million, senior account manager, the new Northwest flight will leave Las Vegas at 1:30 p.m., arriving in Detroit at 8:05 p.m. Return service will leave Detroit at 10 a.m., arriving in Las Vegas at 11:05 a.m.

"Northwest operates a 248-flight-a-day traffic center at Detroit and, as a result, Las Vegas passengers can make connections to destinations throughout the northeast and Great Lakes regions," Million said.

With the new flight, Northwest will offer five daily departures from Las Vegas, including two roundtrips each to Minneapolis/St. Paul and Memphis and one to Detroit. All three destinations are Northwest traffic centers.

"By linking Las Vegas to Detroit as well as Minneapolis/St. Paul and Memphis, travelers will have easy access to more of Northwest's 135-city route system," Million said.

Northwest serves destinations in 21 countries on three continents and carries more passengers across the Pacific than any other U.S. airline.

Soviet General And Auschwitz Survivors He Liberated Reunited At Wiesenthal Center Yom Hashoah Commemoration

Lighting the flame of remembrance at the Simon Wiesenthal Center's Yom HaShoah commemoration is retired Soviet General Vassily Patrenko, (right) who led the forces which liberated Auschwitz in January of 1945. In introducing the General, who flew in from Moscow to be the keynote speaker for the event, Rabbi Marvin Hier, (not pictured) Dean of the Center, said, "The General and his forces will always be remembered for giving the gift of life." The General was joined by Holocaust survivors and the Center's Director, at the close of the ceremonies. "private, internal" ceremony attended by a few invited guests, including members of an American United Jewish Appeal women's delegation visiting Warsaw en route to Israel.

The only diplomat present was The Netherlands Ambassador to Poland whose country represented Israel's interests there since 1967. Paltzur said he held a large Independence Day reception at his home, attended by a number of Polish officials.

According to Paltzur, his small staff was "earning its salary" even before the official opening. He said the office has had many Polish visitors seeking information about Israel and some applying for visitors' visas. Poland is opening its own interests section in Tel Aviv.

The opening in Warsaw coincided with the fifth World Congress of Polish Jewry which convened in Tel Aviv recently.

Israel Interests Section In Warsaw Has Officially Opened

TEL AVIV (JTA) — Six-Day War, opened The Israel interests section in Warsaw, the first Israeli diplomatic presence in Poland since that country broke relations with Israel during the 1967 officially Tuesday morning. The head of the section, Mordechai Paltzur, told Israel Radio in a telephone interview that the opening was a

Sweets OF LAS VEGAS

Some people maintain that chocolate is better than love. Then there are those who maintain that chocolate is love. But practically everyone agrees chocolate is the most tempting thing to come along since Adam fell for an apple. Like all great love stories, the story of man's love for chocolate is laced with romance, adventure, devotion and triumph.
