The General Municipal Elections and County Special Bond Election will be held on June 2nd. For those people who will be out-of-town and require an absentee ballot, requests for absentee ballots for the cities of North Las Vegas, Boulder City, Henderson or Mesquite should be directed to the respective City Clerk and for registered voters of Las Vegas and the unincorporated area of Clark County, absentee ballot requests should be directed to the Clark County Election Department, 400 Las Vegas Boulevard South, Las Vegas, Nevada 89101. All absentee ballot requests must be received in the respective offices no later than May 26th.

In-office absentee voting will be available May 12th through May 26th, excluding May 25th which is a holiday, for registered voters in Las Vegas and the unincorporated area of Clark County, who may cast an absentee ballot at the Clark County Election Department, 400 Las Vegas Boulevard South. Registered voters in North Las Vegas, Boulder City, Henderson or Mesquite should contact their respective City Clerk for the dates and hours of in-office absentee voting. This means of in-office voting is made available for those people who will not be in town on Election Day and will not be at any permanent address sufficiently long enough to receive an absentee ballot by mail.

After May 26th, in-office absentee voting will be restricted to persons attesting that an emergency situation exists.

All absentee ballots must be returned to the issuing office by Election Day.

Chicago radio/TV personality Sig Sakowicz returns to Las Vegas with his tour group and will be ensconced at The Frontier Hotel May 24 - 28. He'll celebrate his birthday there May 27. The famed broadcaster spent 13 years in Las Vegas hosting radio/TV shows, plus writing a column.

In Chicago, he currently hosts a daily 10 -- 11 a.m. call-in radio show via WVVX, plus hosts the award winning "Sig's Celebrity Kitchen" viewed on Group W Cable.

The Sig Sakowicz Fan Club, now numbering over 600 women, is planning a tour to the Edmonton Mall and Canadian Rockies September 21 - 28, 1987. For information write to 210 Skokie Blvd., Highland Park, IL 60035.

With the help of media people and concerned citizens of Las Vegas, an entertainment extravaganza to benefit Aid for AIDS of Nevada (AFAN), a local non-profit AIDS support/educational group, will take place in the main showroom of the Stardust Hotel on Sunday, June 14th beginning at 1:00 p.m.

Those stars who have thus far committed themselves to performing in this three-hour event include: Jack Jones, Lola Falana, Norm Crosby, Rip Taylor, The Platters, The Gold-diggers, Terry Moore, Gary Mule Deer, Lance Burton, Roberta Sherwood, The Treniers, Joseph Gabriel ("City Lites"), and cast members from "Legends in Concert." Others will be announced in the near future.

Tickets for this star-studded entertainment extravaganza are on sale at the cashier's cage of the Stardust Hotel. The tax deductible tickets are $25 and $50.

For more information about the benefit or how you can become an AFAN volunteer, contact Executive Director Wes Davis at 369-6162.

The Phobic Society of America, Las Vegas Support Group Chapter meets Thursday evenings, 8:00 p.m. - 9:30 p.m. at HCA Montevista Centre, 5900 West Rochelle Avenue, Las Vegas, Nevada.

Persons with anxiety, panic disorders and agoraphobia are invited to attend. Family members are also welcome.

The American Cancer Society, in conjunction with the Circle Gallery, will be presenting an exhibition of the art of Calman Shemi through June 10 at the Circle Gallery in the Bally's Grand Hotel Shopping Arcade. For more information, call Nancy Burdick at 734-0000.

Every year in May the Humane Society of Southern Nevada launches its annual warning to both residents and visitors to the State of Nevada. The red, white and black, 8-1/2" x 11" posters stating, "Warning: Heat Kills Pets In Parked Cars," are being offered FREE of charge to businesses, public parks, tourist attractions, public buildings and individuals who wish to display them. A 3' x 5' hand-out version is also available at no charge.

The Humane Society of Southern Nevada strongly urges all pet owners, "If you love your pet, leave him home. Don't take a chance with your pet's life."

Contact: Humane Society of Southern Nevada (702) 875-4448 Monday thru Friday 10:00 A.M. - 4:00 P.M.

To safeguard against oral cancer, the American Cancer Society offers free screenings on the 1st Wednesday of each month at 6:00 P.M. at The American Cancer Society, 1325 E. Harmon. The purpose of this program is to check the mouth for any abnormal tissues or sores.

Everyone is urged to have a regular dental check and on a monthly basis inspect their inner mouth. If a persistent sore or pain is present, or should occur, a dentist should be seen immediately. Early detection is the key. For more information or for an appointment for this screening, call 798-6877.

New Horizons Academy, 2393 Potosi Street, announces its 13th annual summer school and recreational program, June 15 through July 17. Small classes, Grades 1-8, are specifically designed to provide individualized assistance in academic subjects. High school credit can be earned for students in Grades 9-12. A structured recreation program consisting of varied activities will be held in the afternoon. For information, call 876-1181.

Wet 'n Wild recently participated in a pre-screening event with the Southern Nevada Employment and Training Program's (SNETP) Youth Program for summer employees at the popular water park.

"Out of the 150 kids screened, about 70, or 50%, may be eligible for employment at Wet 'n Wild," reported Martin Lotz, SNETP Operations Manager.

For more information on the SNETP Youth Program, contact SNETP at 385-6100, or stop in at 922 W. Owens.
