

$200,000 "Pull for the Gold" Slot Tourney at Riviera

RIVIERA $200,000 SLOT TOURNEY — Riviera Hotel & Casino Slot Manager Hobert Fischer oversees slot play in anticipation of the $200,000 "Pull for the Gold" Slot Tournament slated for April 22-24 at the resort. In addition to the April tournament, a $1.6 Million "Pull for the Gold" is scheduled for June 9-12. More information on these events can be obtained, or entries can be made, by calling (800) 437-7951 or (800) 634-3420 outside of Nevada, or (702) 734-5110 within Nevada.

The Riviera Hotel & Casino will host a $200,000 "Pull for the Gold" Slot Tournament April 22-24 at the resort.

The total entry fee for the tournament is $1,000, and on April 24 the first place winner will receive $50,000.

"It's a great buy," said Riviera Hotel & Casino Slot Manager and Tournament Director Hobert Fischer. "The odds of getting $50,000 are much better than they would be on any kind of slot machine. Somebody will walk away with it (the $50,000 first place prize), and someone will 'break even' and wind up with a vacation," he said.

Second place prize money is $20,000, and the third place prize is $10,000. Cash prizes will be awarded all the way down to 125th place.

The total in cash and prizes to be awarded will be $200,000. Even the person finishing last will win a Hawaiian vacation for two.

There will be $32,000 given away in bonuses. The entrant who receives the highest points in every Play Session (16 total Play Sessions) will win a $2,000 cash award.

To qualify for a chance at one of two $1,000

Imperial Palace Hotel & Casino Honored For It's Role In Motor-Voter Registration Campaign

At a press conference held to announce Nevada's new Motor-Voter Registration campaign, the Imperial Palace Hotel & Casino was honored for it's contribution to the state's campaign. The Imperial Palace supplied a 1922 Pierce Arrow from the Imperial Palace Auto Collection which was used in filming the television public service announcements for the campaign. Additionally, the Imperial Palace provided printing services for the campaign's "Have Your Say the American Way...VOTE!" promotional posters. Lieutenant Governor, Bob Miller, presented Imperial Palace Assistant General Manager, Art Roushkolb, with the award from the Secretary of State's office.

According to the Secretary of State, Frankie Sue Del Papa, Nevada's Motor-Voter Registration Campaign is a result of a bill passed by the 1987 Legislature which, simply stated, enables Nevada residents the opportunity to register to vote at all driver's license or vehicle registration offices of the Department of Motor Vehicles and Public Safety.

The objective of Motor-Voter Registration is to increase the number of registered voters by providing Nevada residents with a convenient method of registering while they are conducting other business in a Department of Motor Vehicles and Public Safety office.

Early Bird bonuses, entries should be received no later than March 29.

In keeping with the Riviera's tournament tradition, entrants will have the choice of either playing in the tournament individually, or having their spouse or guest play for them. Or the entrants can participate jointly, whereby each can play two rounds for the single entry fee.

The entry fee includes complimentary meals, beverages, orientation and welcoming party. It also includes accommodations for four days and three nights, a complimentary show for two and the gala Awards Banquet on April 24, when the cash and prizes will be awarded.

More information can be obtained, or entries can be made, by calling (800) 437-7951 or (800) 634-3420 outside of Nevada, or (702) 734-5110 within Nevada.

"Maverick Art" Showing, At Las Vegas Art Museum

Sunday, February 7, from 12 to 3 p.m. the Las Vegas Art Museum at Lorenzi Park will hold a reception for "maverick artist", Dr. Heinz Rettig, recently retired Community College teacher, and present artist.

Rettig, who will have his art shown throughout February, will be on hand to motivate and register "closet maverick" artists in the area whose works represent unbranded nonconformist styles.

Following this exhibition the Art Museum will show the works of other maverick artists in their new innovative MAVERICK ART SECTION.

Community wide painters in any media will be entitled to register, first-come-first-served space available, without charge.

These showings will continue throughout the year as the Las Vegas Art Museum's public outreach program, according to Don Trippy, Museum President.

Sale Of Hitler Painting Protested

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Vienna in 1910 was sold for $36,000 at a New Year's Day auction here, the World Jewish Congress reported.

The sale triggered an angry but peaceful demonstration by some 25 people against "the celebration of an evil man who's well known for his mass murder, not well known for his art."

The 9-by-15-inch painting, signed by Hitler, depicts a church, a bridge and a horse-drawn carriage in old Vienna. It was auctioned by the Den of Steven Gallery, which obtained it from a retired Ford Motor Company executive who insisted on remaining anonymous.

The purchaser was Dr. Donald Wright, a Louisville physician. The protest was organized by J. Mary Sorrell of the New Jewish Agenda.
