

Chinese New Year Stars
Liza Wang At The Riviera

EAST MEETS WEST AT RIVIERA -- Chinese singer/actress Liza Wang will star in a one-night, one-show performance at the Riviera Hotel & Casino's SuperStar Center in celebration of Chinese New Year Feb. 19. Together with a troupe of Chinese dancers, singers and musicians, Wang (who sings in Japanese, Mandarin, Cantonese and English) will introduce music of the East to her Western audience. Tickets are priced at $20 and $30. Ticket information can be obtained by calling (702) 734-5433.

Chinese superstar Liza Wang will celebrate Chinese New Year with a special one-night, one-show performance in the Riviera Hotel & Casino SuperStar Center Feb. 19 at 10 p.m.

Wang, a renowned artist in her native land, brings with her a troupe of dancers, singers and musicians from China.

The beautiful and petite entertainer is a 17-time winner of Hong Kong's Golden Award for Best Entertainer, and has also received its

"Legends In Concert" At The Imperial Palace Hotel & Casino
Selected "Show Of Shows" By
The International Press Association

The hit show "Legends in Concert" at the Imperial Palace Hotel & Casino has garnered yet another award for excellence. Legends, which was voted 1985 Show of the Year and 1986 Entertainers of the Year, was recently presented the Triangle of the Arts President's Award as "Show of Shows" by the International Press Association.

The Triangle of the Arts President's Award is presented to those who, in the opinion of the International Press Association, have made a significant, special contribution to the arts. "Legends in Concert" joins an elite group of past award recipients, some of whom include Jack Lemmon, Ingrid Bergman, Robert Conrad, Cary Grant, Alfred Hitchcock and Angela Lansbury.

International Press Association President, William F. L. Singer (right), presented the award to John Stuart (left), Producer and Director of "Legends in Concert," and Tony Roi who portrays Elvis, at the conclusion of one of Legends

Golden Award for Best Arts Performer. She has performed on concert tours in Bangkok and Thailand, television shows in the East, starred as an actress in classical Chinese dramas and as a singer/actress in Chinese operas. She's also a popular recording star who recently had a "Number One Gold Record of the Year" in China.

Wang was named one of the "Ten Most Extraordinary Youth in Hong Kong" in 1982, and often performs for charitable programs in China.

Tickets for Wang's special performance at the Riviera are $20 and $30. Ticket information can be obtained by calling (702) 734-5433.

recent performances.

Legends in Concert, which features live recreations of legendary superstars is presented twice each evening in the Imperial Theatre at 8 p.m. and 11 p.m. (except Sundays). Cocktail shows are $11.95 plus tax with a $2.00 surcharge for Saturday performances.

Imperial Palace Hotel & Casino
Appoints George Staresinic To Position Of Publicity Writer

George Staresinic has been appointed to the position of Publicity Writer at the Imperial Palace Hotel and Casino, it was announced by Steve Radulovich, Director of Advertising and Publicity.

Staresinic, 33, is a 23-year resident of Las Vegas, with an extensive background in journalism and writing. He spent eight years as a writer and columnist for the Las Vegas SUN and most recently, worked as a freelance writer for the Las Vegas Review-Journal, Associated Press, United Press International and Golf World Magazine.

In addition, Staresinic also handled several events as a public relations specialist, including the Muscular Dystrophy Association's World's Longest Golf Hole, the Panasonic Las Vegas Invitational and the opening of the new Painted Desert Golf Course.

Staresinic has twice won writing awards from the Nevada State Press Association.

Group Vows To Take Hostages
If Canada Deports Terrorist

OTTAWA (JTA) — A terrorist group in Lebanon has threatened to take Canadian hostages if the government deports Mahmoud Muhammad Issa Muhammad, a convicted Palestinian terrorist scheduled to appear in Toronto Federal court for a deportation hearing.

The External Affairs Ministry issued an advisory to Canadian citizens not to travel to Lebanon. It estimates there are 500 to 1,000

Canadian nationals in that country, including persons holding dual citizenship.

A foreign news agency in Beirut reported that it received the threat in the form of a letter from a hitherto unheard of group calling itself "The Strugglers for the Liberation of Palestine."

Issa Muhammad entered Canada a year ago after obtaining an immigrant visa under false pretenses from the Canadian Consulate in Madrid. He is a member of the Popular Front for the Liberation of Palestine.

In 1970, a Greek court convicted Issa Muhammad of the 1968 bombing of an Israeli airliner at Athens airport, in which one man was killed. He was sentenced to 17 years and 5 months in prison but was freed a year later in a hostage exchange.

John Turner, head of the opposition Liberal Party, declared that "Canada cannot give in to terrorist threats. Proceedings should continue."

Deputy Immigration Minister Jerry Weiner told the House of Commons that Issa Muhammad "may either leave voluntarily or as a result of a deportation order. Our objective is to get this man out of the country."

Thousands of KFM listeners have already WON
OVER $300,000⁰⁰ IN CASH
AND PRIZES
by just listening or having a KFM Bumper Sticker on their car.

1410 AM KFM 102 FM

Continuous Country