Hadassah members and their friends will be in for a great treat at the general meeting and luncheon that will be held on Monday, February 15, 1988 at Montara Meadows, 3150 East Tropicana Boulevard at 11:30 A.M.

We will have the honor of presenting to you as our guest speaker, The Honorable Richard Bryan, Governor of the State of Nevada. Governor Bryan has recently returned from a trip to Israel.

We are all looking forward to meeting and greeting once again our Governor. Everyone is invited to join with us.

We owe this very fortunate event to our very hardworking Vice President of Programming, Babe Lieb. Babe is very diligent in her efforts to have only the best for us, as she says: Only the best is good enough for Hadassans.

Reservations are a must for this momentous event. Luncheon is $5.00 per person. Please call Eleanore Schwimmer at 871-5583 or Rose Seltzer at 735-9368. We suggest you make your reservations early.

The Las Vegas Music Teacher's Association will present a showcase of music students in a "Monster Concert" in Artemas Ham Concert Hall Saturday February 6, at 7 p.m. Piano participants include over 250 elementary through college level students. Teachers of the students will also perform and the Suzuki violinists from the Nevada School of the Arts will play as well.

Twenty grand pianos have been loaned for the event allowing for up to forty performers to play at one time. Tickets at two dollars for adults and one dollar for children under 12 are available from teachers, participants and at the door.

UNLV's Barrick Lecture Series will present former U.S. President Gerald R. Ford as its next speaker Feb. 8 at 8 p.m. in the Artemus W. Ham Concert Hall.

His lecture, titled "An Evening with the 38th President of the United States of America," is free and open to the public, but tickets are required.

Tickets will be available to the public at the UNLV Performing Arts Box Office. Box office hours are 12:30 - 5:30 p.m. Monday-Saturday. For more information, call the box office at 739-3801.

Las Vegas Art Museum, Lorenzi Park, will present "Friends Of The Arts" awards to two local media representatives on Sunday, February 7 at a reception from 12 to 3 p.m.

Recipients of awards will be Ruth Deskin, Publisher's Assistant, Las Vegas Sun, and A.D. Hopkins, RJ Editor for Nevada Today.

Museum President Donald Trippy will make the presentations.

The occasion is the opening of a new "Maverick Art" Gallery section of the museum where Dr. Heinz Rettig, former Clark County Community College teacher, will show his own "maverick art." As coordinator for recruiting other maverick artists, whose work does not represent any one school of art, Rettig will be present as registrar. Artists in this category will be able to exhibit their own work from March 1 on at no cost or judging.

Honorary hostesses for the event are County

Commissioner Thalia Dondero, Nevada Tourism Commissioner Lorraine T. Hunt, Lilly Fong, former University of Nevada Regent, and Lucille S. Bruner, artist and leader in area arts causes.

The event is open to the public.

The fourth annual Bridal Affair, themed "A Little Romance" will be held at The Boulevard Mall February 5 - 7, 1988. The Bridal Affair will consist of many exhibitors throughout the mall who will be there to answer any wedding-related questions, along with Bridal Fashion Shows scheduled for Friday, February 5 at 7:00 P.M., Saturday and Sunday, February 6 and 7, at 2:00 P.M.

For further information regarding the Bridal Affair, contact The Boulevard Mall Marketing Office at (702) 734-1562.

Circle Gallery, located in the shopping arcade of the Bally's Hotel, will feature an exciting exhibit of Calman Shemi Soft Paintings February 8 - 29. The Israeli artist's technique is a visual feast, combining the soft textures of fabric with a vibrant, painterly handling of color. Contact the Gallery at 734-0000.

Lou Tabat, the North Las Vegas Constable and World Boxing Judge, has been selected by the International Selection Committee to be the team manager for the United States Amateur Boxing Federation.

Lou Tabat will participate in two dual boxing competitions in Gothenburg, Sweden and in Odense, Denmark, in February of this year.

Lou Tabat says he has one more goal to shoot for, and that is to be appointed to the Nevada Athletic Commission and help build a strong Nevada Amateur Boxing Program.

Desert Productions International presents "Heart & Soul" variety review and fashion show at the Court House Restaurant & Lounge, 5720 W. Charleston. The show is slated for February 14 - 8 P.M., and the admission is $20 in advance or $25 at the door. A portion of the proceeds go to the American Heart Association.
