PARIS (JTA) — The French-made film "Shoah," which traces the Nazi extermination of six million Jews on the very grounds where the Holocaust occurred, will be shown in Moscow this week.

It will be part of French Film Week, and the French film industry will be displaying its most important productions.

"Shoah," which runs nine hours, will be screened in two parts at the Soviet film center, Dom Kino, according to its director, Claude Lanzmann. The film, which has received international acclaim, already has been shown in Poland, where it drew large audiences.

Lanzmann said he hoped it also would be shown on Soviet television. The director of the Soviet television and radio authority announced he will attend the "Shoah" screening. He is expected to meet with Lanzmann, who will be in Moscow with the French delegation.

B'nai B'rith Governors Seek Middle East Peace

WASHINGTON — B'nai B'rith's International Board of Governors, the organization's top policy-making body, called on the Arab world "to finally respond positively to Israel's quest for peace over the last 40 years." At the same time, the board stated that it "supports and encourages the government of Israel to negotiate a peaceful resolution in the area."

At its Washington meeting, the board noted that while the media portrayal of Israel has been unbalanced in recent days, B'nai B'rith "fully supports the objective of the government of Israel to quell the rioting in the most humane way possible and under the most provocative and difficult circumstances."

B'nai B'rith is the world's largest Jewish organization.
