

Congregation Ner Tamid News

By Art Gellin

The Services on Friday night, February 19th, will always signify an important date in the history of Congregation Ner Tamid.

Leo Wilner, Ner Tamid's number one booster, who was a bulwark of strength through our dark and difficult days, admitted that he was privileged to formally introduce Rabbi Akselrad to the Congregation. He recalled the attributes we required of our prospective Rabbi and how fortunate we were to find just the right person to be our spiritual leader. The service was enhanced by the excellent singing of Matthew Eisenberg, our Cantor Pro-Tem.

In his remarks, Rabbi Akselrad answered the often-asked question of newcomers to our city, "What brought you to Las Vegas?" He stated it was his desire to join Congregation Ner Tamid in order to continue his hope to grow, hand-in-hand, with a congregation that was forward looking and dedicated. He issued a clarion call for the commitment of the Congregation to join him in making Ner Tamid the foremost center and leader of reform Judaism in Las Vegas.

The Bima was beautifully decorated and following the service the Sisterhood provided a delicious Oneg Shabbat.

Health Fair '88 The Month Of MARCH

KTNV-13 and Centel are proud to announce Health Fair '88.

During the month of MARCH, free health screenings will be provided to residents of Las Vegas, Henderson and Boulder City at various locations throughout Southern Nevada.

The Health Fair will provide 13 free medical screenings: height, weight, blood pressure, EKG, pulmonary functions, visual acuity, glaucoma, hearing, skin cancer, oral cancer, exercise education, foot screening, and a health risk appraisal.

No blood tests will be administered at Health Fair this year, but the public will have the opportunity to receive optional laboratory tests at a reduced cost. The tests include urinalysis, blood count, basic blood chemistry, and a coronary risk profile. Those interested in taking the tests may pay for them at Health Fair, then have the procedure administered at a designated testing center.

"Health Fair serves a dual purpose; to provide health screenings for those who might not otherwise have received them, and to increase the individual's awareness of their responsibility for their own health care," said KTNV's General Manager Jim Behling.

Health Fair is being co-sponsored by major Southern Nevada hospitals, including University Medical Center, Boulder City Hospital, St. Rose de Lima Hospital, Humana Hospital Sunrise, Community Hospital and Desert Springs Hospital.
