

SDC Development Breaks Ground For Harmon Industrial Center

Harmon Industrial Center will feature modern architecture, professional landscaping and convenient amenities like those found in industrial developments throughout Southern California.

SDC Development of Newport Beach, California, has acquired a prime nine-acre site in Las Vegas and will have its groundbreaking ceremony for the Harmon Industrial Center, a $5-million project, on Thursday, March 3.

Construction is scheduled for completion in May. Grove Construction Company of Las Vegas is the contractor. Coldwell Banker Commercial Real Estate negotiated the sale of land with SDC;

Sam Boyd's Fremont's Steve Thompson Promoted To Vice President

Newly-elected chairman of the board of The Boyd Group, William S. Boyd, announced the naming of Sam Boyd's Fremont Hotel & Casino's General Manager Steve Thompson as a corporate vice president.

The recent reorganization of The Boyd Group's corporate executive staff was necessary due to the rapid growth and future plans for the Las Vegas-based corporation.

Thompson joined The Boyd Group in 1983 as a member of the management training program. In October of 1984 he was promoted to director of operations at Sam's Town Gold River Hotel & Gambling Hall in Laughlin, Nevada. Transferring to the corporation's newly-acquired Fremont Hotel as assistant General manager in 1985, Thompson was promoted to general manager in December, 1986 after overseeing the property's $15 million renovation.

Entries Sought For Holocaust Writing Contest

WASHINGTON, D.C. — The U.S. Holocaust Memorial Council is now accepting entries in its fourth annual National Writing Contest on the Holocaust. The deadline for the contest, which is open to all high school students in grades 9 through 12, is March 24; the winners will be announced by April 14. The subject this year is "What are the Lessons of the Holocaust for and Leasing Agents Perry Muscelli and Douglas Albright will be handling the lease for the complex.

Coldwell Banker is extremely pleased to be instrumental in procuring this location for SDC Development," states Albright, "since it is located in the heart of our city's industrial and business center. This level of accessibility is at a premium.

Located just minutes from Las Vegas' McCarran International Airport, west of I-15 between Tropicana Avenue and Flamingo Road, the 140,000-square-foot building is SDC's first project in Nevada.

The complex, designed by the award-winning architectural firm of Gilbert Aja & Associates, features a glass front facade and is divisible into six spaces ranging from 16,500 to 35,000 square feet.

Currently, SDC Development has more than 300 acres of industrial and retail projects under way in Southern California, Arizona and Nevada. The Newport Beach-based company's current California developments include a 25-acre industrial park in City of Industry, two large warehouse/distribution projects in Ontario, a 31-acre mixed-use retail and industrial complex in Corona; and there are also three Tempe, Arizona, industrial projects as well as numerous shopping centers in California and Arizona.

Americans?"

The First Place winner will receive a free trip to Washington, D.C. for the award presentation, a library shelf of books about the Holocaust and a certificate of honor. Other winners will receive books on the Holocaust and a certificate. The schools of all winners will receive a matching set of books.

The format is open -- entries may be fiction, nonfiction, poetry or drama. Isalah Kuperstein, director of education for the Council and coordinator of the writing contest, emphasizes that all entries must represent the independent effort of the writer. They will be judged on originality, content and appearance, and must not exceed 2,000 words.

Entries should be typed or printed, double spaced, on one side of the page, and should be accompanied by a title page which contains the following information: student's name, home address and telephone number; student's school telephone number; name of teacher; and grade. They should be mailed to:
