

Don't Drink And Drive In '88

It may be past that time of the year to "Tie One On," but drunk driving is still a tragedy that affects hundreds in Nevada every year. One hundred and seven people -- the number represented here during MADD's recent "Tie One On" campaign -- died on Nevada's highways last year, and ARCO AM/PM and other local convenience stores are reminding people to not drink and drive during 1988.

TEL AVIV (JTA) — Knesset member Elazar Granot, secretary general of the Mapam party, was due to enter China from Hong Kong for a 10-day official visit.

He is the first member of a Zionist party to be invited by the People's Republic of China. He will be the guest of the Chinese Association for Friendship Among Nations and is expected to discuss the Middle East peace process with senior officials of the Chinese Communist Party.

Prime Minister Shamir Addresses Israeli Crisis At Wiesenthal Center Event

LOS ANGELES — Israeli Prime Minister Yitzhak Shamir delivered a major address, which focused on his March 14-16 talks with President Reagan and Secretary of State George Shultz and the current crisis in Israel, at the Simon Wiesenthal Center, recently. The Israeli leader flew directly from the nation's capitol to the Wiesenthal Center's event in Los Angeles where he participated in an outdoor ceremony marking the dedication of the cornerstone of the Simon Wiesenthal Center's new $30 Million Museum of Tolerance.
