

Federation Golf Tournament Cure For Golf Fever

Do you remember the FUN of the Jewish Federation of Las Vegas' Golf Tournament last year -- either participating in it or reading about it? Get ready because the FOURTH ANNUAL JEWISH FEDERATION GOLF TOURNAMENT is set for Wednesday, May 11 and it promises to be even better this year.

Chairs Sandy Mallin, Micki Waller, Allan Molasky, Geri Gilman and Irv Steinberg have really put their heads together to plan a unique and exciting event. The new Painted Desert Country Club has been selected as the site, and that in itself spells "great day."

Registration during a light breakfast will begin at 9 a.m., and utilizing a Southwest theme, an Awards Luncheon will find the tournament concluding on an ever higher note.

The format will remain as a four-man-scramble blind draw, but this year will see some major "surprise" changes including a Putting Contest.

IT IS NOT TOO EARLY to arrange for your participation. Because of the response last year, we anticipate the possibility of having to limit the number of players for May 11. Contact Suzan Lane at the Federation office, 732-0556, to indicate your interest in playing and a place will be reserved for you.

For those of you who do not play golf but are interested in lending your support to the Federation's, Sandy's, Micki's, Allan's, Geri's and Irv's efforts, individuals or businesses can sponsor tees for a nominal donation.

UNLV is offering a summer program in San Miguel de Allende, Mexico, June 27 - July 22. Sponsored by UNLV's Office of International Programs and the Summer Session Office, the program offers classes in Spanish and marketing as well as folk singing and dancing and Spanish current events.

The program cost is $884 for classes, room and board; transportation fees are not included. Participants can choose from first-, second- or third-year Spanish courses, which are scheduled Monday through Friday, 8:30 a.m. - 12:30 p.m. The classes are taught by instructors from the Academia Hispano Americana, and enrollment is limited to 12 students per instructor.

The deadline to submit applications and a $100 deposit is April 8. A final payment of $784 is due no later than May 31. For more information, call UNLV's Office of International Programs at 739-3896 or the Summer Sessions Office at 739-3711.

Plan NOW to take the day off on WEDNESDAY, MAY 11, to play golf at Painted Desert. Notes to disgruntled employers, your staff and/or clients excusing you from work are available at the Federation office. Better still, bring along these "friends" of yours. Judging from the response of our Medical Division to this event, you could probably avail yourself of a "Doctor's Note" on the green (providing you don't outshoot him!).
