

1938 - 1988: "Genocide"
Premieres At
Vienna's Urania Theatre

The Simon Wiesenthal Center's Academy Award-winning Holocaust film "Genocide" premiered March 12 in Vienna, under the patronage of Dr. Hilde Hawlicek, Minister for Education, Sports, and the Arts, and Dr. Helmut Zilk, Mayor and Governor of Vienna. This dramatic photograph of the Urania theatre was taken in March 1938 at the time of the Anschluss. Distinguished and eminent personalities from all segments of Austrian life came together 50 years later for this special event, part of a series of observances taking place in Vienna to mark the anniversary of the Anschluss.

The money from the Atlantic Richfield Company will be used to purchase materials, sponsor field trips and hire qualified instructors for a program that develops the self-esteem, talents and life skills of teenaged girls.

The Atlantic Richfield Company (ARCO) has made a substantial contribution to the Las Vegas Home of the Good Shepherd that will enhance a new one-year program that develops the self-esteem, talents and life skills of teenaged girls.

ARCO Executive Tom Murphy, manager of the company's Los Angeles Region Office which includes Las Vegas, presented a check for $3,000 to Sister Kathleen Moore, administrator of the home for teenaged girls with behavior problems. The money will be used to purchase test materials and class materials, sponsor field trips, and hire qualified instructors.

"We are quite pleased for the opportunity to contribute to the emotional well-being of those certain young ladies who need a second chance," Murphy said. "We believe wholeheartedly in the work of the Home of the Good Shepherd, and are delighted to help finance the training of these girls through a program designed to help them become vital, contributing members of society."

The program consists of four parts -- a vocational inventory to identify areas of interest; a communication course to help in handling situations from casual conversations to job interviews; a life skills course on how to live a healthy, independent life; and a project selected by each girl to practice her new skills and knowledge.

The Home of the Good Shepherd has served the Las Vegas area for more than 25 years, and provides 24-hour residential care.

Former Chicago Woman
Needs Cheese Cake Recipe

Dear Sir:

I wonder if you could help me out. I've lived in a Jewish neighborhood most of my life and always bought cheese cake. I wonder if any of your friends know the recipe for the cheese cake they used to sell in the bakery. It was in a loaf size that they baked in a large pan; each one would be about 3 x 8 inches and it was very light. Everyone I tried to bake came out like Sara Lee, which is on the solid, heavy side. I really would be very grateful if you know anyone who knows the recipe.

Hope I hear from you,

Sincerely Yours,

Eva Kukula
