

Robert P. Aronson Leads 'Team' At Paddlewheel Hotel & Casino As General Manager

Robert P. Aronson has taken over at the "helm of the ship" at the Paddlewheel Hotel & Casino as general manager, it has been announced by Carlos Garcia, president of food services for Horn & Hardart in charge of the Paddlewheel.

Aronson, who holds a Bachelor of Arts Degree from Brooklyn College in New York, from where he originates, has been a Las Vegas resident for the past nine years. After relocating, Bob took all of the gaming and hotel management courses available at the University of Nevada, Las Vegas. He says, "I made the career change to the gaming industry because there are many opportunities in it."

"The growth pattern of Las Vegas is exciting and it's a good time to be here. There isn't any place else in the world I'd rather be than right here," states Bob.

Volunteers For Israel Sets 'Unity Flight' To Israel

NEW YORK (JTA) — Volunteers for Israel, a New York-based organization that sponsors working visits to Israel, announced plans to "demonstrate American Jewry's solidarity with Israel" by flying 450 volunteers there.

Passengers on the El Al Israel Airlines "Utility Flight" will spend two weeks working alongside Israelis in agricultural, hospital and warehouse jobs. Volunteers for Israel is subsidizing the program, which will cost participants $275 for the flight, room and board.

"We shouldn't have to wait for wars before we give Israel our support," explained Samson Giat, organization president.

Founded in 1982 in response to Israel's domestic manpower needs during the Lebanon war, Volunteers for Israel has since won the Chairman of the Knesset Prize for its contributions to immigration and immigrant absorption.

The organization worldwide has sent more than 13,000 volunteers to Israel, more than 7,000 of them from the United States, according to Giat. For more information, call (212) 608-4848.

Paddlewheel, Bob was a programmer/systems analyst for Random House in New York and for three years, ran his own retail sporting goods store in New York.

Since arriving in Nevada, Aronson has had the position of casino and general manager at the Station House Hotel & Casino in Tonopah, NV, and has been a casino executive at the Royal Americana, the Maxim and Dunes Hotel in Las Vegas. Most recently, Aronson was general manager of the Red Garter Casino in Wendover, NV, where he took a losing property and turned it around into a profitable enterprise in a nine-month period.

"My main objective at the Paddlewheel," says Aronson, "is to make it a major property in the gaming industry. I am at the Paddlewheel because of the commitment Horn & Hardart has made in contributing to the growth of the Paddlewheel and the Las Vegas economy as a whole."

Aronson notes, "You can feel the energy and excitement spreading through the 'rank and file' employees at the Paddlewheel and it's a great motivating factor. Everyone is pulling together, like a family, to make this even a more outstanding property than it already is."

Bob has three sons, Mitchell, 23; Jamie, 21; and Philip, 19 that reside in New York.

In his spare time, Aronson enjoys all sports including racquetball, golf, tennis and working out in a gym in addition to good movies and the theatre.

The Guys Of 'La Cage'

The Riviera Hotel & Casino's "An Evening At La Cage" takes its audience into the world of illusions. The female impersonators take up to an hour-and-a-half to complete the transformation from a man to a woman. Several of the performers do more than one impersonation, requiring costume changes and makeup alterations. The elaborate extravaganza, produced by Norbert Aleman and Lou Paciocco, stars Frank Marino (left) as Joan Rivers. Other cast members portray such greats as Dolly Parton, Barbra Streisand, Diana Ross, Liza Minnelli, Whitney Houston and Carol Channing. Showtimes are 7, 9 and 11 p.m., every night but Tuesday. The show includes two drinks. Ticket information can be obtained by calling (702) 794-9300, or tickets can be purchased at any Ticketron outlet.
