Shultz And Shevardnadze To Confer On Mideast Peace Plan, Human Rights

WASHINGTON (JTA) — The differing U.S. and Soviet views toward an international peace conference on the Middle East will be on the agenda during the meetings here between Secretary of State George Shultz and Soviet Foreign Minister Eduard Shevardnadze, a senior State Department official said.

The Soviet view is "quite different from ours," Rozanne Ridgway, assistant secretary of state for European and Canadian affairs, said, as the

Shamir Is Confident Jews, Arabs Will Reach A Peace Settlement

WASHINGTON (JTA) — Israeli Premier Yitzhak Shamir said he believes that a settlement can be found that will "satisfy" both Israel and the Palestinians.

"It is destiny" that Jews and Arabs will "live together" in peace, Shamir said in an interview on CBS-TV's "Face the Nation."

"They will not remove us and we will not expel them," he stressed. "And therefore we have to find a formula that will enable us to live together. And we will

Preparing For An International Passover Of Freedom

Yeshiva University Student Bechor Davidov (Left), a Bukharian native, dons an embroidered, silk traditional Bukharian garb for enacting the Passover Seder worn by his Sephardic ancestors -- the Bukharian Jews in Central Asia, Northern Iran, Tashkent, and Samarkand. Mr. Davidov, 17, was born in Chitrichi, a city next to Bukharia now in the Soviet Union. He arrived in the United States nearly two years ago, and he is now a pre-med student at Yeshiva College -- the University's undergraduate division of liberal arts and sciences for men in New York City. Shirin Siony (right) 22, an Iranian student at the University's Stern College for Women, holds the Matzah ..

Arab-Jewish Cooperative Village In Israel Nominated For Nobel Peace Prize

JERUSALEM, Israel — Neve Shalom/Wahat Al-Salam (NS/WAS), Israel's only Jewish-Arab cooperative village, has been nominated for the 1988 Nobel Peace Prize, it was announced here by Abed el-Salaam, secretary of the village.

The village, which is located on the hillside mid-way between Jerusalem and Tel Aviv, was nominated for the award by Honorable Erling Bager and the Honorable Kerstin Ekman, members of the Swedish Parliament, who are authorized to make nominations to the Nobel Peace Prize committee in Oslo.

In making the nominations, Bager and Ekman
