

Our Passach

By Mrs. Irene Karpel

(AUTHOR'S NOTE: With our Passover Holiday coming April 1st, I hope you will print my original poem in your next issue. I wrote this many years ago when we were raising our three sons and I was teaching the meaning of our Holiday. At that time, I figured that a short poem would register much better in their young minds.)

Passach is just 8 days long
 Full of prayers and song
 We don't eat any bread
 But we eat Matzos instead
 Now you're going to say, "What For"
 Wait -- And I'll tell you more:
 It happened in Egypt long, long ago
 When the Israelites were slaves, you know
 And the Pharaoh was mean as could be
 The Israelites wished only to be free
 The question was: How, When & Where to?
 The answer -- which only God knew
 He chose Moses to accomplish this deed
 By leading the people to freedom, yes indeed
 And with G O D's help, of course
 Moses used no other force
 God parted the waters of the Red Sea
 On that land the people did flee
 Pharaoh followed, but not for long
 He was punished for what he did wrong.

information booths set-up for most of the organizations and temples. There will also be cultural displays with items for sale. Other booths will be retail outlets for several businesses.

"More than three thousand participants will partake of the day's offerings," Chairman Dr. Neville Pokroy projected.

Tickets are required for entry into the facility and will allow you to participate in the day's activities. Gold tickets (Patrons) are $20, Adult tickets - $5, Students and Seniors - $2.50 and Kids 6-12 tickets are $1. Tickets may be purchased in advance by contacting Federation Community Relations Coordinator Beverly Eisen at 732-0556. A souvenir brochure listing patrons and including a variety of information will be given to ticket-holders upon entry.

Businesses and organizations may still rent booths. For booth rental information, contact Paul Merchasin, 794-4430. Two tables may be rented by businesses for $50, by non-profit organizations for $45. One table for businesses is $35, for non-profit organizations, $25.

There will be something for every-one at this community-wide celebration. Mark your calendar -- tell your friends! Join us. Plan upon arriving early and staying late, because there will be plenty to do and lots to see.

Need further information? Want to volunteer or purchase tickets? Contact the Federation office at 732-0556 and ask for Community Relations Coordinator Beverly Eisen.
