

JEWISH NEWS BRIEFS

MONTREAL (JTA) — Convicted Palestinian terrorist Mahmoud Mohammed Issa Mohammed will face a deportation hearing in Hamilton, Ontario, a federal court in Toronto ruled.

Justice James Jerome dismissed an application by Issa Mohammed's lawyer, Lorne Waldman, to quash the deportation proceedings on grounds that his client's constitutional right were violated. Waldman said he would appeal, and Issa Mohammed, who has been free until now, may be taken into custody pending the outcome of the appeal.

TEL AVIV (JTA) — More than half of the Knesset has asked President Reagan to pardon Jonathan Jay Pollard and his wife, Anne Henderson Pollard, now serving prison terms for spying in the United States on behalf of Israel.

A petition urging a presidential pardon was signed by 70 Knesset members representing 10 parliamentary factions of all political complexions. It was presented to U.S. Ambassador Thomas Pickering for transmission to the president.

NEW YORK (JTA) — A commission representing the major institutions of Conservative Judaism, has issued the first common statement of principles in the movement's 143-year history.

The document, "Emet Ve-Emunah" (Truth and Belief), includes the movement's position on belief in God, the role of women in Judaism, religious pluralism and the Conservative approach to halacha, or Jewish law. It essentially reaffirms declared individual positions of the movement.

JERUSALEM (JTA) — Israeli authorities have dismissed the mass resignation of Arab police officers in West Bank towns and villages as inconsequential.

But they have taken measures to punish the Palestinian population for mounting a war of attrition against the Israeli civil administration, which appears at the moment to have replaced the violence of the past three months.

JERUSALEM (JTA) — About 55 American tourists were injured when their bus, bound for Egypt, skidded and flipped over on a wet road in the Negev.

Twenty-two of the tourists were admitted to a hospital in Ashkelon. Two were reported in serious condition. The others were discharged after treatment.

The tourists, members of a Methodist church group, are from North Carolina and West Virginia. Their Mideast tour began in Amman, Jordan, continued in Jerusalem and Galilee, and was to have ended in Egypt.

VIENNA (JTA) — Viennese Jews solemnly mourned the victims of the Holocaust here, two days after Austria commemorated the 50th anniversary of the Anschluss — the absorption of Austria into the Third Reich in 1938.

The Jewish event was low key and non-political. An hour of prayer preceded a march to the Morzinplatz, once the site of the dreaded Gestapo headquarters in Vienna. Some of the Jewish participants were Holocaust survivors, others were born long afterward.

BRUSSELS (JTA) — World Jewish Congress president Edgar Bronfman said he has given to the Belgian minister of justice a document from the United Nations war crimes archives listing the names of nine of the 244 Austrians wanted in Belgium for war crimes, including murder and torture.
