Expert Conducts First
Las Vegas Seminar

ROBERT PANTE

If you suffer from the proverbial "closet full of clothes but NOTHING to wear" syndrome, panic when invited to a "special" affair, or secretly fear that virtually everyone is more "put together" than you, don't despair! Help is on the way.

Robert Pante (pronounced Pon-tay), internationally acclaimed Fashion and Image Consultant, Lecturer, popular television talk show guest and author of the Doubleday best seller, "Dressing to Win: How to Have More Money, Romance and Power", will be in Las Vegas Sunday, July 10 to conduct his day-long "Presentation Salon/Seminar" for men and women.

These now famous salons are held all across the United States, Canada and Europe, primarily in cities of influence such as New York, Houston, Los Angeles, Atlanta and Chicago. This will be the first time a salon will be held in Las Vegas, but according to Pante's area sponsor, Marla Anker, "It's time for Las Vegas residents to add their city to the list of world class, influential cities".

Essentially the objective of the salon is to assist each participant in identifying their own personal strengths and assets and to magnify their own sense of presence, elegance, power and affluence through their physical presentation.

Renown for his dynamic personality, the 49-year-old consultant has been referred to as the "facilitator that opens an array of options, outlooks and possibilities that are each person's key to unlimited success".

Leaving a very successful teaching career, Pante entered the corporate arena where he became the international training director of Aramis Corporation and was in fact responsible for its meteoric rise in the famed Estee Lauder firm.

Studies in human motivation and behavioral sciences eventually led him to establish his present business, Robert Pante Enterprises, a San Francisco based consulting firm.

For further information on this exclusive workshop, contact Marla Anker at 735-3753. Early registration is suggested since seating is limited.

WASHINGTON (JTA) — The Reagan administration indicated that while it plans to continue working for a solution to the Arab-Israel conflict until its terms expires in January, Secretary of State George Shultz may have made his last trip to the Middle East.

Hadassah Mission Celebrates Israel's 40th Anniversary

NEW YORK — More than 150 members of Hadassah from throughout the United States will tour Israel this month (June) during a special Presidential Mission celebrating the 40th anniversary of the Jewish state.

Ruth W. Popkin, National President of the women's Zionist organization, will lead the mission on an itinerary that ranges from the Golan Heights in the north to Jericho in the south and explores Israel's ancient past as well as the trials and triumphs of 40 years of nationhood.

Israeli President Chaim Herzog, Deputy Prime Minister and former President Yitzhak Navon and Knesset Speaker Shlomo Hillel are among the top government officials who will meet with mission participants during the 14-day event.

In addition, Moshe Kol, one of the few living signers of Israel's declaration of statehood, will recall the dramatic events of 1948 in a special program at Independence Hall in Tel Aviv. Jerusalem Mayor Teddy Kollek will present each mission participant with a 40th Anniversary Certificate, and the group will also be greeted by Tel Aviv Mayor Shlomo Lahat before touring the 40th Anniversary Exhibition at the city's fairgrounds.

The mission's itinerary includes a tour of the Golan Heights and the ancient town of Gamla in the north, and a visit south to Beersheva and David Ben Gurion's home in Sde Boker, as well as a visit to Jericho, near the Dead Sea.

Mission participants will also tour the Hadassah-Hebrew University Medical Center at Ein Karem, the Hadassah-University Hospital on Mount Scopus, and other sites in the network of projects in health care, career education, youth welfare and and reclamation that the organization maintains in Israel.

Hadassah, the Women's Zionist Organization of America, is the largest Jewish women's volunteer group in the United States and the largest Zionist organization in the world.

Soviets Reportedly Negotiating With Israel For Spy's Release

JERUSALEM (JTA) — to comment recently on Israeli officials refused reports that Israel and the Soviet Union were negotiating for the release of a Jewish emigre serving an 18-year prison sentence in Israel as a Soviet spy.

The report in the West German daily Die Welt said the case of Professor Markus Klinkberg, reportedly sentenced in 1983, was discussed by Foreign Minister Shimon Peres with Soviet officials whom he met in Madrid this week while attending a meeting of the Socialist International Council.

According to Die Welt, Klinkberg's release was Moscow's precondition for restoring normal relations with Israel.

The 60-year-old biologist came to Israel as an emigrant from the Soviet Union. He was deputy director general of the Biological Institute in Ness Ziona.
