

Community Hospital Welcomes Christine Clark

where she attended St. Thomas Apostle High School and Northern Illinois University. Her medical education was obtained at the Ohio College of Podiatric Medicine.

Everyone enjoys being with Dr. Clark, because she has such a friendly and pleasant personality. She is very proud of her strong family ties and credits them with the success she is fortunate to have today. Her goal as a podiatric physician is "To provide excellent podiatric healthcare for the entire family". She believes that both treatment and preventive care in the relation to Foot Problems are very important.

Dr. Clark's office is located in the College Park Medical Building at 1905 McDaniel Street, Suite 201, telephone 642-4405 for further information.

Las Vegas is very fortunate to have received a dedicated physician from the Windy City.

Two Terrorists Killed In Lebanon

TEL AVIV (JTA) — Two terrorists planning an attack inside Israel were killed in a clash in southern Lebanon.

They are believed to have been attempting to infiltrate into Israel when they tried to ambush a South Lebanon Army patrol.

The patrol spotted a cache of explosives on a roadside near a-Shiya village. As it approached, it came under fire from a concealed position.

The soldiers returned the fire, killing two of the assailants. There were no SLA casualties.
