

Congregation Ner Tamid News

By Art Gellin

Eileen Kollins was honored as the recipient of the first award ever presented to a congregant — and thus she became the Congregant of the year 1988. This program was coupled with New Member Sabbath. Close to 100 new members — who joined the Temple Family within the past year will henceforth be known as the Eileen Kollins Class of 1988 — and we expect great things from them.

Eileen was the recipient of many well deserved accolades, including the presentation of a beautiful bouquet of flowers from a group of former Bar and Bat Mitzvah students. President Kenny Schnitzer presented a series of well documented film clips along with his masterful commentary which in effect was a version of "This is your life Eileen Kollins". The sanctuary was completely filled with congregants, friends and well-wishers. The musical portion of the program was provided by our Temple Choir, which has now expanded to 17 blended voices — thankx to Martha Olson. Sat. morning on Nov. 5th marked the second session of the Rabbi's Meal and spiel. This seminar was as well attended as the earlier meeting. The originally planned hour meeting lengthened well into the 2nd hour. A short Sabbath service preceded the class discussion.

The Tot Shabbat program has proven to be a huge success. The first meeting had more than 30 children attend. Next meeting will be on Dec. 3 at 10:30 a.m. Call the Temple office to reserve a spot for your child.

Tot Shabbat is a special Sabbath Service which is geared to young children. Tots (i.e. children 1st grade and younger) as well as their older brothers and sisters are welcome...Each meeting will feature a special service and craft projects geared around a special topic. A light lunch will be served. Sisterhood Hanukkah Bazaar to be held on Sunday Nov. 20 from 4 p.m. on. This is your golden opportunity to purchase your special gifts for the holiday. You have heard of Chili Cook-offs — now we urge you to be present at the first of it's kind — A NUDEL-KUGEL Bake-off. Enter your favorite recipe that your Tante or Bubbe created in her own kitchen.

Other activities will include — the serving of Potatoe Latkes — Brisket Sandwiches — Hot Dogs — Channukah Games — Judaica Jewelry — as well as fun games for the kids.

SLA Commander Is Recovering From Assassination Attempt

TEL AVIV (JTA) — Gen. Antoine Lehad was reported out of danger at Rambam Hospital in Haifa following an assassination attempt at his home in Marjayoun, in the southern Lebanon security zone.

Lehad is commander of the South Lebanon Army, a largely Lebanese Christian force of about 2,600 men, armed, trained and financed by Israel to police the security zone along Israel's border with Lebanon.

He was shot in the chest and upper arm by Suha Bshara, 21, a ballet and physical education instructor described as a friend of the family. She was immediately arrested by SLA troops.

Beirut newspapers identified Bshara as a member of Lebanon's tiny Communist Party, which is backed by Syria. She was issued a pistol permit only two weeks ago, the newspapers said.

Maj. Gen. Yossi Peled, the Israel Defense Force commander for the northern sector, visited Lehad at the hospital. He said the IDF considers the assassination attempt "very serious."

Sources in southern Lebanon speculated that it may have been the result of an SLA crackdown on Hezbollah (the Party of God).

The pro-Iranian Shiite extremist group was responsible for a suicide car-bomb attack that killed eight IDF soldiers and wounded seven in the security zone last month.

The attack on Lehad appears to have been planned for some time. Bshara, a frequent visitor to the general's home, was allowed in without being checked for weapons by security guards.

According to Lehad's wife, Minerva, she and her friend Bshara were in their salon with one of Lehad's top aides when the general returned home.

After chatting a few minutes, Bshara approached Lehad for financial assistance for her ballet school. Suddenly, she pulled a gun and shot him, Minerva Lehad said.
