

Student/Teacher Holocaust Education Conference Draws 500 People

Pictured (seated) are Hortense and Samuel Alper, major benefactors of the Nevada Holocaust Education Committee. Standing with them are Norm Kaufman, Executive Director of the Jewish Federation of Las Vegas and Edythe Katz, General Chairman of the Nevada Holocaust Education Committee and Nevada liaison to the United States Holocaust Memorial Council, Washington, D.C. They are shown preparing for the Student/Teacher Holocaust Education Conference that was held on November 10 and attended by 500 students, teachers, religious leaders of all denominations, as well as concerned lay leaders from throughout this community. Students attending were from the Clark County School District, private schools and public schools from as far away as Parowan, Utah.

Congregation Ner Tamid Gift Shop Dedicated

The newly dedicated Congregation Ner Tamid Gift Shop is now open. After many months of design and construction by Leslie Dunn, congregant contractor the plans finally came to fruition and the shop is now a reality. Mary Fox, Sisterhood President extends an open invitation to have you come in and browse. She assures us that you will be enthusiastic at the wide display and array of everything Jewish. The shop welcomes you in the warmth of the Hanukkah candle-glow. Purchases can be made everyday and MC and Visa are accepted. The shop will provide all your Hanukkah gifts and the inventory offers many exclusives as well as Israeli imports. The following is only a partial listing of the merchandise; Menorahs, Hanukkah candles, book ends, Bar and Bat Mitzvah gifts, ceramics and Judaica jewelry, Kiddish cups, Talit. The creative ability of Georgia Ames is evident in the displays. Lill Eisner and Barbara Rosen are the ladies in charge of the store and can help with suggestions for Holiday giving. Pres. Mary Fox praised and thanked Phyllis Mark for her financial support for the construction of the shop in memory of her late husband, Norman Mark.
