Argentina Approves Nazi Extradition; ADL Says Dutch War Criminal Missing

berger last year,

Abraham Secemski of Chicago, told the Wiesenthal Center, "I now feel confident that Schwammberger will at long last have to stand before the bar of justice."

In another development, ADL's Rosenthal also related about the reported disappearance of accused Dutch Nazi Abraham Kipp, who was previously located in Argentina.

Rosenthal said Dutch television reported Nov. 24 that Kipp, tried and sentenced to death in absentia in 1949 by a Dutch court for the murder of at least 20 persons, reportedly disappeared and that his house outside Buenos Aires boasts a "for sale" sign.

Kipp, who was born in Amsterdam, served the occupying Nazi forces as a policeman, reportedly rounding up members of the Dutch resistance and other men, women and children, including many Jews, ADL reports.
