

Don't Miss Sherie Rae
Feb. 21 - March 10
El Rancho Hotel & Casino

Sherie Rae is a vocalist, actress, songwriter, musician and impressionist. She is an ambitious and talented performer who has paid her dues and is making her mark in today's entertainment field.

VARIETY has praised her voice, style and stage presence, vocal range and versatility. Interviews with her have been published in many music and entertainment publications.

Sherie was born in Detroit, Michigan, and raised in the San Fernando Valley, California, where, as a child, she began to sing and dance before audiences. At the age of 14, Sherie made her first professional recording for Screen Gems Studios. Drama workshops, piano and harmony courses in College and the Dick Grove Music Workshop solidified her intent to pursue a career in Music and Drama which included writing original music and lyrics. She started her own professional band and entertained in some of the best clubs in Los Angeles. Since then she has continued to sing with musicians across the United States.

Sherie's impressions include Janis Joplin, Bette Midler, Patsy Cline, Barbra Streisand and others. In April, 1983, Sherie joined the original cast of "Legends in Concert" at the Imperial Palace Hotel & Casino in Las Vegas where she starred in the show for several years as Janis Joplin. She also appeared at the Nugget in Reno, Knotts Berry Farm in Los Angeles and the Normandie Club in Gardena, California.

Television shows include "Eye on Hollywood", "World News Tonight", "The Ralph Pearl Show", "On Stage America", "Entertainment Tonight", "MTV's The Cutting Edge", "Steve Edwards Three Three O", Canadian "McGowan's World", taped TV shows for Japanese networks and three shows for TNN, The Nashville Network, for "You Can Be A Star" which aired 27 times throughout 1987, nationally on Cable television.

Television commercials and jingles include program identification for Channel 8, KLAS, "We've Got the Touch", Channel 5, KVVU, (the Johnny Carson Broadcasting System) "Take Five", Drexel Heritage Furniture "Come Alive" and Perry's Back East Show Bar Commercial for the Las Vegas area.

Live interviews on K-Earth 101 FM and Frankie D's "Talk Radio" in Las Vegas. Station Break jingles, "Take 5".

Records include: Lead vocal, "I Didn't Know The World Would End This Way" Screen Gems. Backup vocals; "Ocean Park Angel" with Jan & Dean, "You've Been Gone Too Long" with Dale & the Daarts, "This Road" with Esther and "Walkman" and "Break-dog" with Michael Winslow.

Sherie has considered herself "lucky" to be chosen to perform for the March of Dimes, Muscular Dystrophy and other telethons with Lola Falana, Paul Anka, Joan Rivers, the Smothers Brothers, Jim Stafford, Mac Davis, Diana Ross, Sheena Easton, Dean Martin and others.

Sherie Rae resides in Las Vegas where she continues to record. She is the featured vocalist in the Johnny Clark Band playing the lounges of Las Vegas. During the past year she could be heard, weekly, in the shows at the Aladdin Hotel, the Dunes, the King 8, the El Rancho, the Showboat and many others on the glittering Strip.

Her versatility in music ranges from Country, Popular, Rock and Rhythm and Blues.

Don't miss Sherie Rae Feb. 21-March 10 at the El Rancho Hotel & Casino.

Marilyn Monroe Comes To Life
On Boy-lesque Stage

There is a heat wave happening at the Sahara's Congo Theatre and though diamonds are a girl's best friend, the cause of this temperature rise is Jamie DeSario, the newest female impersonator feature in Boy-lesque. Since joining the cast for the production's opening last year at the Sahara Hotel, DeSario has danced back-up for other features in the show. He now has his own spotlight as Marilyn Monroe doing his rendition of those dance numbers made famous by the legendary star.

More than a little padding goes in to making DeSario's voluptuous curves for his "Diamond" and "Heat Wave" routine. "I have a part where I fall into the arms of male dancers," he tells, "but I don't have to worry about them dropping me, I'll just bounce."

DeSario's Marilyn Monroe joins the likes of Cher, Diana Ross, Whitney Houston, Tina Turner and others in Boy-lesque. Showtimes are Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Sunday at 8 pm and 11 pm. Friday and Saturday showings are 8 pm, 10 pm and midnight. The show is dark on Wednesday.

Director Of Sales
Named At Dunes

LAS VEGAS — Recently appointed director of sales at the Dunes Hotel, Casino and Country Club is hotel sales and travel executive Valerie Moon.

Formerly vice president of sales at the Frontier, Moon comes to the Dunes with more than 20 years of experience in the tour and travel industry.

Since beginning her career at the Sahara, Moon has worked both sides of the business. She held the position of director of sales for OTC Tours of Chicago and spent more than nine years with Del Webb Travel.

Moon, a member of the Hotel, Sales and Marketing Club, served as president for two years. She was named Boss of the Year in 1986 by the Women's Convention Sales Association.

Moon says she is striving to develop an extensive sales and marketing department to re-establish the Dunes as a premier property in the 1990's.
